A Way Of Life...

HAPPINESS is a way of life.

IN A WORLD full of anxiety—of fear about Atom bombs, invaders, destroyers of freedom—it is urgent that we regroup our thoughts and recapture the buoyancy that goes with American youth. We must laugh and be joyful, not sad and fearful.

WE HAVE AN abundance of reasons for joy—health, opportunity, ambition, a high standard of living. We have traditions of leadership, of international friendship, of unselfish devotion to the good of mankind. We are the world's hope for the sunshine that must follow dark clouds of gloom.

WE REFLECT in others our thoughts and actions. Life is sad only to those who will it so. Let our happy thoughts and actions be reflected in happiness for others as well.

IT'S WONDERFUL to be a part of this, the best of all worlds!

First Building

Home of the administration . . . principal, registrar, counselors, and deans.
It is the nerve center of our school.

Campus at Night

- OPEN HOUSE gave staff photographers opportunity to capture this unusual view of the Home Economics wing to the First Building. Its modern lines and bright lights are indicative of our school's progress.
- EDUCATION is a continuous process. The end of the seventh period does not mean the end to the school day. Many a light on the campus stays on while students, teachers, and administrators tackle problems that must be solved before another day begins.

Hall Of Science

Here you'll find our future chemists, biologists, and mineralogists. They will find plenty of work to do and problems to solve in tomorrow's busy world.

First Building

There's architectural beauty in our old buildings, too! This sturdy structure has been modernized inside, to be in line with the up-to-date methods of our administrators.

Gladly We Signed The Freedom Scroll

FREEDOM SCROLL signers here are Dean Prather, Mr. Waters, and Dick Siegel. They joined thousands of Phoenixians in applauding the cause of international friendship.

FREEDOM IS A prerequisite of happiness, it seems to most of us. No people can enjoy working and living in a land oppressed and overrun by force. So it is that Free America is a symbol of the happiness we all seek. When Voice of America sent out the Freedom Scroll for us to sign, we did so gladly. Our signatures will be enshrined with those of millions of other students and teachers in a Liberty memorial in Europe . . . to represent our faith in the future of the world . . . a world free of suspicion, evil, and greed.

Happiness— A Goal for Everybody

John L. Carter
HAPPINESS is the goal every person seeks, whether he realizes it or not. From the standpoint of our administrators, happiness of students, teachers, parents, taxpayers . . . everybody concerned with the school—is a major objective. Our school leaders want us to achieve success in every way—earning a living, getting along with others, and the realization of the full life.

Principal James S. Carter has demonstrated in every way that he is interested in the development of Phoenix Union High School and the success of its students. His constant efforts to improve the buildings and the opportunities for study have brought the "new look" to our campus. Backed by an efficient staff of teachers and administrators, he has kept Phoenix Union in the lead . . . just where we want it to be!

Principal James S. Carter

Graduates of our school continue to reflect credit on their alma mater and on those who help to keep Phoenix Union among the nation's best.

ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL: Seated are H. H. Turner, Mildred W. Wood, William S. Stone, Beth L. Rogers, Jeannette Banker, Harry White, Cordelia M. Perkins, R. H. Ogle. Standing: Harry L. Crockett, James S. Carter, E. A. Brock, Milton K. Rasbury, Clifford J. Prather, R. R. Robinson, Iscah Mateer, C. E. Willson, J. C. Hays, W. M. Gates, and Lucille Anderson.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Standing are John E. Herrscher and William J. McDonald, Board president. Seated: Mrs. F. A. Bons, clerk; Dr. Norman A. Ross, Dr. Trevor G. Browne, and Supt. E. W. Montgomery.

The Deans

DEAN OF BOYS Clifford J. Prather knows thousands of students, has a big smile for everyone.

DEAN OF GIRLS Iscah Mateer considers "Holiday's" invitation to visit the far places, but really she likes it here!

Our Parents Lead The Way

FOUNDERS' DAY brought many active members of the Parent-Teacher Association to the Social Hall February 15. Upper Left are Mesdames Caldwell, Corkins, Lonsdale, Snead, Snodgrass, North, Espinoza, Estes, Kall, Howell, Jordan, Williams, Tabor, Harmon, Hayes. Also Mesdames Otwell, Forman, Peabody, Twitchell, Alexander, and Addington. Mrs. North (upper right) addresses the meeting. Lower Left: Past presidents include Mesdames Alexander, Cross, North, Brown, Addington, Peabody, and Twitchell. Right: Opening meeting in October brought a hearty response from parents and teachers. Our PTA is the best possible link between school and community.

Efficiency Brings Excellent Results

MAINTENANCE of such a huge school plant as ours requires hundreds of man-hours and constant attention to detail. But so efficiently is the operation conducted, we are scarcely aware of the process. At our school is housed the Central Warehouse, where purchases for schools in the entire city system are stored, sorted, and shipped out. Repairs and new building stem from this source, also, as these pictures may show. Upper left shows Messrs. Ulmer, McKeever, Loew, Mitchell, and Russell busy as usual. Upper Right: Mr. Crawley and Miss McQuate check supplies. Right center: Nightwatchman Gerrard punches the clock that reports "all's well in Building 5". Lower left: Expert indeed as repairman of typewriters is Mr. Hall. Right: Mr. Scanlan checks a motor as Mr. Schwartz, superintendent of grounds and buildings, looks on.

Lost --- and Found

WON'T SOMEBODY take these coats? Poor Mrs. Kyle has run out of storage space, and warm weather's here so that the owners are even less likely to claim the wraps. Smiling his sympathy, Schultz reports he lost not a coat but a fountain pen. Right: Bunger wonders what can be done with one white glove and one black glove long since forgotten by their owners.

Thanks To Those Who Serve Us!

FOUND—A BABY elephant! That was a headline used in the Coyote Journal to call students' attention to the variety and abundance of goods turned in to the Lost and Found Department, supervised this year by Mrs. Lucie Kyle, secretary to the deans. Her persistent efforts to locate owners of lost items, her ready humor, and patience call for tons of thanks from those who benefited . . . meaning most of us.

HUNDREDS OF CUSTOMERS storm the Bookstore for service . . . purchase of school supplies, tickets to games, subscriptions to the annual, and refunds on deposits made earlier in the year. Through it all, good nature and courtesy have paid dividends. Somehow, smiles and kind words make the waiting seem shorter and the long line move faster. To Mr. Allen and his staff the students echo, "Thanks!"

BOOKS, TICKETS, and supplies keep the Bookstore customers coming. They find ready smiles and efficient service a part of the process, too, as Miss Waiton and Mr. Allen go into action. The Bookstore handles all supplies on a co-operative basis, bring the students wonderful buys in paper, pencils, ball point pens, and the like. Another big help to student pocketbooks is the second-hand book service.

Democracy Speaks Through Them

DEMOCRACY IS EXPRESSED at Phoenix Union High School through the voices of our Student Council. Representatives of the homerooms, these boys and girls gather at regular intervals to discuss school problems as they apply to the students, carry the central groups' ideas back to their "constituents," and after homeroom discussion, the Council again discusses, votes, and takes measures to improve the situation under consideration. Here, then, is real democracy at work.

LEADERSHIP CAN BE learned only through participation . . . and that is the keyword most acted upon in Student Council. Some of the measures taken this year by Student Council include improvement of the grounds; consideration of others' rights, with regard to disposal of lunch papers; conduct in the assemblies, at the Cafeteria and at school functions such as dances and games. Faculty adviser is Mr. John Waters, assisted by the deans and student body officers.

INVITATIONS to visit the Board of Control keep these secretaries busy checking before-and-after results. Standing are Koch, Harton, Lake, Campbell, Saunders. Seated: Buchanan, Dean, Garver, and Durham.

SENIOR REGISTRATION meeting brought puckers to many a brow regarding what courses to take second semester. Here Mr. McCarty helps to guide Jim Black. Right: Flash Cards aroused vigorous applause from football fans this year. Here outlining the grid season program ore King, Miss Young, Kope, and Mr. Ellis. With the 101 Club as a nucleus, the Flash Card unit grew in numbers and enthusiasm.

Federation

OH NOoooo! You Don't! Federation Official Celaya scoots Blankenship back into line at the Cafeteria, to the amusement of Lopez, right. Of course this was posed, but it does illustrate another function of the Boys' Federation, which does a fine job of encouraging good citizenship.

Good Sportsmanship Is Their Aim

BOYS WORKING harmoniously to promote sportsmanship, not only in athletics but in all other fields, is an activity of the Boys' Federation. Another is helping needy boys through school. This year's biggest project was developing the Quadrangle with the $1000 donated by the Federation last year. Palm trees were planted and concrete seats were constructed, lighting was installed to create another place of beauty.

CIRCUMSTANCES prevented having the annual Mor Follies frolic, but none of these was for the lack of enthusiasm. The boys are anticipating the combined girls and boys show next year. They co-sponsored the successful Frontier Dance this year with the Girls' Letter Club which was a huge success. The 1950-51 Federation was under the leadership of Al Ludlow, president; Nick Kondora, vice-president; and Ras Rowe, secretary.

BOYS' FEDERATION: Siegel, Woodall, Webster, Ludlow, Kramer, J. Kondora, Duffy. Back Row: Contreras, Rowe, N. Kondora, J. Black, R. Black, Aycock, Christie. Adviser to this group of student leaders is Dean Clifford Prather.

Girls' League

LEAGUE OFFICERS spent many an hour planning for the big convention to be held in March at Phoenix Union. Here President Green outlines the program for Brion, Homan, and Schmelzer.

An Opportunity For Every Girl

AN OPPORTUNITY for every girl to participate and enjoy an active student life is what our Girls' League offers. Enthusiastic girls with a purpose have promoted school friendship and standards in their usual high fashion. Central Council, guided by Dean Iscah Mateer, directed the year's zestful activities that brought enjoyment and happiness. These included Midnight and Roses Ball, Every Girl's Dinner, Mother-Daughter Tea, and the Southern California-Arizona Convention. This year's highlight was the Convention. Phoenix Union with the assistance of the Arizona league schools was the hostess school to about 500 girls. Many months of careful planning resulted in one of the most successful conventions in Girls' League history.

WHEN A GIRL is enrolled she becomes a member of the Girls' League. Little does she know of the training in leadership, experience of working with a bunch of wonderful girls, and personal gain she may attain if she becomes an active member, but she learns!

This year's leaders were Roxie Green, president; Barbara Homan, vice-president; Joan Schmelzer, secretary; and Margaret Brion, treasurer.

son, M. L. Brion, Hallett, Miss Mateer, Battin, Holman, Pease, Wilson, Howell, Gilliland and Mendoza. Advised by Dean Mateer, Central Council co-ordinates activities of the four class councils.

And if you enjoy reading good books on just about any subject, you'll find what you seek in our library—one of the largest, most efficiently operated high school libraries in the nation. Thousands of volumes await the pleasure of students. Learning How To Play Is An Art

PERHAPS MORE than any other activity in school, athletics gives students opportunity to relax, enjoy life, and keep physically fit. The modern program of athletics is a departure from the old program of calisthenics—the one, two, three, four, chin yourself once more type of training. Instead, competitive games are arranged, with students classified according to age, size, and the like. Good sportsmanship is stressed always, and the co-ordination of mind and muscle helps start the participant on a life-long program of good physical habits.

COACHES have an easy life. All they need do is blow a whistle now and then, point out mistakes and demonstrate better technique in various games . . . and stick around and drill the teams for countless

OUR SCHOOL has been fortunate in its choice of physical education instructors. The girls receive excellent training from experts in volleyball, basketball, tennis, dancing, and marching. The boys learn about boxing, track, tennis, football, baseball, basketball, and handball from men who have excelled as athletes and proved themselves excellent as instructors. Happiness is based on sound health in most cases. Playing helps throw off the tensions that bring on furrowed brows. ORIENTATION and counseling problems can't all be solved from books, but they do help, decide (standing) Chairman William Gates, Forrest Darsey, L. N. Butler, Lucille Hansen, and (seated) John Waters, Dorothy Kearney, Ethel Rosenberry, Thomas McCarty, and Eleanor Wallingford.

We're Guided By Expert Advisers

GOOD COUNSEL given at the right time can be the most important item in a person's life. All of us reach crossroads at some time; all of us must make important decisions frequently in order to progress. Our counseling program has rapidly expanded to the point where expert help is available to all who need it. No matter whether you are a new student or a sophisticated senior, you can always find a trained and wise adviser ready to help guide your decisions when the going seems rough.

MATHEMATICALLY SPEAKING, you will find a use for figuring just about every day of your life. Sure, they have clerks at the stores who should know how to figure, but remember, they are figuring with your money! And, for that matter, you yourself might be the clerk, whose ability to think clearly will determine the length and progress of your employment. In an attempt to fit the courses to students' needs, the Mathematics Department offers many different math courses—from commercial arithmetic to trigonometry.

MATHEMATICS problems certainly don't dampen the cheerful looks of the math teachers! Seated are Myra Downs, William S. Stone,

Good Workers Know How To Enjoy Play

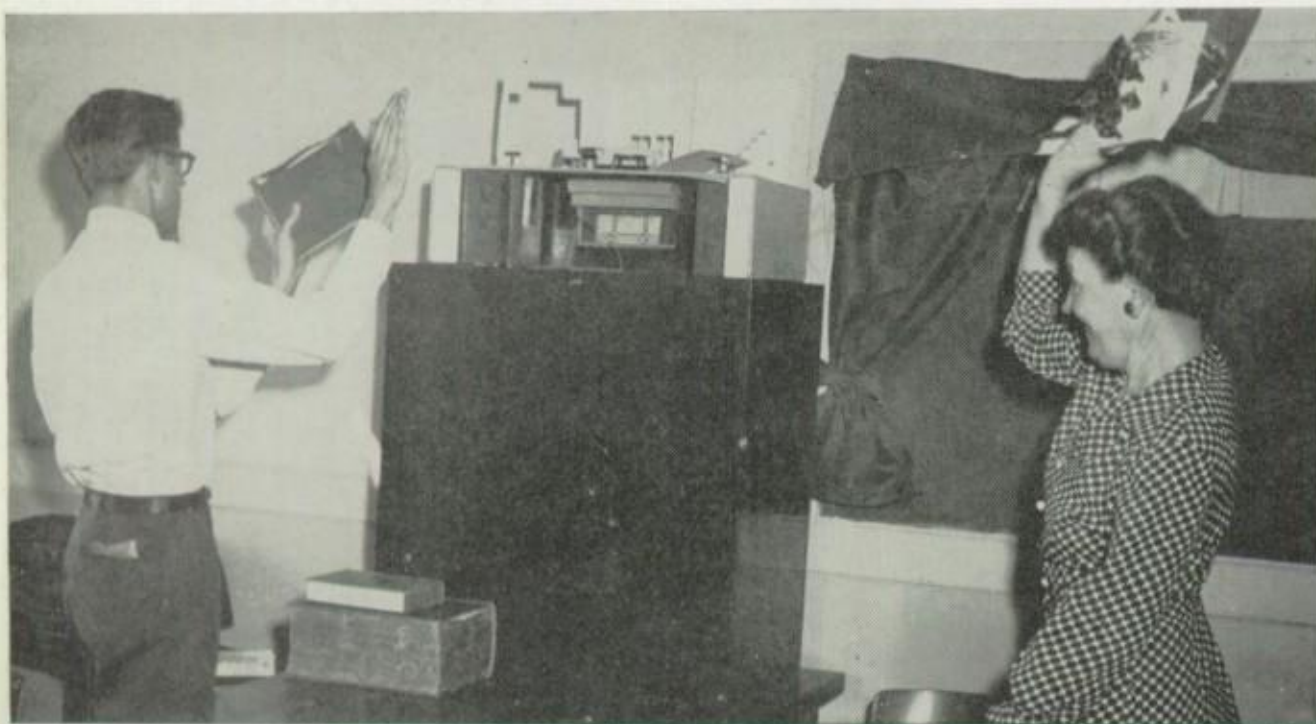

HE WAS HER MAN, but she done 'im wrong! On such a tragic note did Mr. C. E. (the ol' bartender) Willson end his song at the Faculty Frolics this spring. He and Chief Nelson, Tin Pan Alley product, collaborated on the Frankie & Johnny classic.

PEOPLE WHO KNOW how to play make the best workers. And you should see our teachers at one of their frolics! How corny can you get? is a common question . . . and the answer is this: Listen to some of the small talk at a faculty gathering! Our teachers don't have many moments of relaxation . . . but when they do!

FROM DAYLIGHT to dark they are immersed in class-work, counseling, planning, research, grading. And the same thing goes on at night. Students who gripe about homework know nothing of the homework teachers must do. We're glad they are good workers . . . and just as glad they know how to play and to relax.

THEY CAME to visit us by the hundreds. Here are sample groups on Open House night as they visited (upper left) metalcraft shop, (center) the machine shop, (left center) biology lab, (lower left) chemistry, and (right center and lower right) the refreshment line in the cafeteria. TYPICAL PATRONS of the Cafeteria are these girls, from the left, clockwise: Tanner, Byrd, Bigbie, Christian, Barnes, and Arnold. Balanced meals and large helpings are routine.

Where Eating Becomes A Pleasure

WHEN THE LUNCH bell sounds, the campus comes alive with hurrying figures, faculty and students, all with but one thought, the delightful food and pleasant surroundings awaiting them at the Cafeteria. If you eat for any length of time at any of a number of cafes, or cafeterias, you decide that high prices and lack of variety are most consistent. But nobody has been able to complain truthfully, that "the same ol' stuff" has become a part of our Cafeteria program. Scarcities and high prices are problems Director Kennedy has been able to meet.

UNDER THE EXPERT and cheerful guidance of Mrs. Kennedy, the Cafeteria gives super service with the best in quality and at the lowest possible prices. Her staff includes 15 adults and many students. Home cooking is good, but many who know will take the school Cafeteria's offerings in preference. Salads, meat dishes, soups, and desserts fit for royalty are ours every day. Even the hash is fresh! The modern, beautifully decorated building in which the Cafeteria is placed is conducive, also, to good appetites and pleasant moments.

School Work

SPINNING a bit of historical lore on the Audio-Visual Aids machine are Moody, Hummel, Estes, and O'Reilly.

For All Citizens — Equal Rights

YOU AND I and the family next door—we're all citizens of a wonderful country. But how few of us realize the worth of that citizenship or its meaning to us as individuals. There are, certainly, citizens of the United States who have never bothered to exercise their right to vote, to voice their opinions regarding the running of their city, state, or nation. But few of them hesitate to criticize waste in government, bureaucracy, taxes, and the like. Mostly, though, they go along their way, earning a good living, enjoying the most complete freedom possible but without giving it too much thought.

NOT SO WITH our students of history, economics, and civics. They are learning values first hand; they study, argue, discuss all angles of a situation affecting Uncle Sam and his big family; they read the newspapers and news magazines; they hear the radio, evaluate government officials. They are enjoying the benefits of our greatest freedom — freedom of thought and discussion. We hear much of the "comic book" generation. You won't find 'em here! Our students prefer more useful and timely reading material! And when they reach voting age, they'll act like the good citizens they are learning to be.

Science Is An Open Door To Basic Knowledge

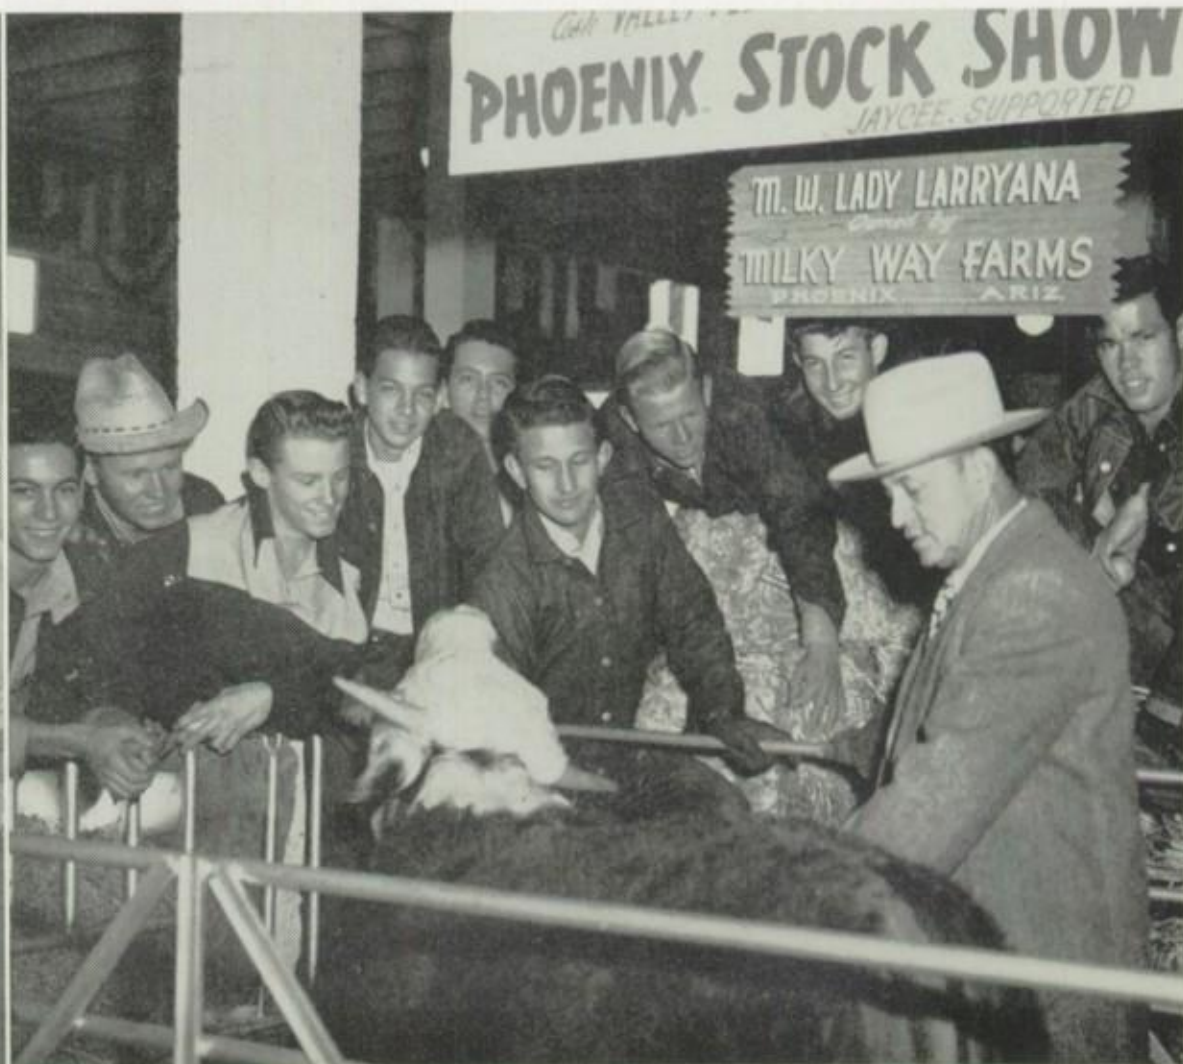

TO THE PASSERBY the Third Building appears to be a world of test tubes, flasks, and peculiar odors. To the student the Third Building is an invitation to explore the mysteries of science. Here science students are taught the basic principles of physics, chemistry, biology, agriculture and physiography.

ALTHOUGH WE may never produce a really great scientist, we are forming habits of scientific thinking and reasoning that will help us all our lives; and we are discovering a field of service that has contributed countless good to the world we live in. It is our privilege—and duty—to learn all that we can in these lines.

DISPLAYS such as this attract visitors to the Biology Department. Shown putting finishing touches on a floral-collection display are Christian and Crower. Right: Agriculture students learn by doing. Here they are told about a prize entry in the Phoenix Stock Show.

WHO KNOWS! Here may be future greats in the world of science! At left, Goldsberry and Neve admire a physical map of Arizona, prepared by physiography students. Right: Demonstrating that sound does not go through a vacuum are Anderson and Shriver. In background are Phillips and Andrews. There's never a dull moment in these classes—where experiments are always going on!

Ah Science! It's Amazing What We Can Learn!

Home Making—Most Worthy Art

IN A WORLD of high momentum featuring push buttons and the can opener, it is commendable that we still have fundamental home making courses. Cooking and sewing may be a chore for some, but our Home Making Department has never even heard of the complaint. We believe in modern education and the latest methods which allow more leisure time for the home maker. Newer techniques in cooking, sewing, child care, and human relationship problems are handled under expert teachers.

ULTIMATE GOAL of a happy home is complete understanding of all the necessary elements that make for security, comfort, and the feeling of belongingness. The most important of all the arts is that of making a house a gracious, livable home . . . an art that should appeal to teenagers and adults alike.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE in any field, the boys as well as the girls are conscious of the values of home making education as shown by the number enrolled in the classes. Our Play School classes, especially popular with the boys, teach how to obtain willing co-operation from children. It's a safe bet these boys may some day become model fathers.

SOUP'S ON! "A table for four please!" Yanez, Tilley, Mrs. Ferrell, Tardiff, and Topia view the process. Right: Vargas and Cochran toss a salad good enough to please the most particular epicurean. An appealing custom is for student cooks to eat their own cooking.

AN ARMY TRAVELS on its stomach. . . . The way to a man's heart is through his stomach. . . . Eat, drink, and be merry, for tomorrow we diet!

It's easy to think about food and to find wise or funny sayings about the wonderful stuff . . . but if a girl can cook, she has gained a talent that will bring contentment to a handsome husband and as many children as she finds crowding the table at dinner time!

Food and its preparation have been favorite topics of discussion since man first learned to build a fire. In caveman days, we might suppose many ate to keep alive—but today the tendency is to prepare food so that each new meal is an adventure worthy of planning and shopping. Cooks can be trained, but a good cook is a rarity.

HOT BISCUITS—"Ahl!" A sigh comes from the lips of Frank Lopez as he views his very own cooking.

Everybody We Know Enjoys Good Cooking

Mathematics — A Useful, Necessary Ingredient

MATHEMATICS is a useful and necessary part to our civilization, everyone will agree. But why should all of us have to put up with the stuff? That's a fundamental question and one worthy of a good answer. Everybody needs math; in our everyday life we use math in countless ways. Its study teaches us how to think logically and how to handle our daily problems sensibly. It also leads those who plan to specialize in science and engineering into fields that constantly improve our standards of living. It's not strange, considering our efficient teachers and modern methods that mathematics is a popular study for hundreds of Phoenicians.

NOW, IF YOU TAKE this angle and consider the answer we arrived at previously . . . Ed Smith patiently explains his findings to classmates in Mr. Farringer's geometry group.

Phoenix Artists Are Versatile

AGAIN LEADING the field in the Annual Scholastic Art Awards contest, held at Phoenix College last March, Phoenix Union art students earned 44 first prize gold keys and 47 second place awards. Interesting too is the fact that the outstanding student artists won recognition in every field: cartooning, posters, fabric and costume design, photography, oils, water color, tempera, pastels, and ceramics.

LIVING AS WE do in a land of color, it is not surprising that our students enjoy art . . . they see it in our mountains, deserts, flowers, sunsets. The paintings they produce show the bold lines and bright colors typical of our Southwest.

Learn To Think, Speak, Write Well

IT'S A WISE MAN who knows what to say and when to say it. One of the important ingredients of success is the ability to make oneself understood in the best manner possible. Study of English and related subjects is planned with that in mind. Clear thinking, the correct and extensive use of words, and skill in speaking and writing are laudable goals. Evidence is plain that hundreds of Phoenix Union students are achieving such goals by their daily application of the lessons they learn. Such devotion to learning will pay well!

LITERATURE, composition, word study, public speaking, dramatics, journalism, and all the overtones that relate to those fields are made available to our students. Required are three years of English; but the hundreds who elect the non-required English courses in their junior and senior years find that the exciting world of letters can mean hours of delightful experiences, including discovery of creative abilities not previously suspected to exist. Here indeed are keen tools for advancement in a society that appreciates culture.

Foreign Languages

GRACIAS SENORITAS! Mr. White, Foreign Languages Department chairman, accepts a drink, beside the newly decorated fountain, from Luna, while Huerta smiles her approval. Fountain decoration was designed by Art Department.

Study—A Key To World Happiness

A BASIS FOR world wide congeniality is understanding. This is the thought upon which foreign language studies are based. Understanding, sympathy and appreciation are acquired through work and play in the foreign way. Typical of the Foreign Language Department are a hearty smile, and a welcoming handshake. In spite of the work of conjugating verbs and the typical sentence structure outline, the students always come back for more. They can't seem to forget those wonderful days spent learning how the people of other countries work, play, and plan their lives.

WITH INTERNATIONALISM growing and the cost of going places more reasonable, many of us will be world travelers—to Mexico, Italy, France, Sweden, Asia—then we'll really learn to know the people we study about. Then, too, we'll be glad for any language foundations we've acquired through our study at Phoenix Union. The future may hold much that is tragic in wars and suspicions among foreign countries, but eventually, the cause of brotherhood will triumph . . . when we can mingle with the people of other lands and grow to know and admire them.

Practice Makes Perfect . . . If You Really Work!

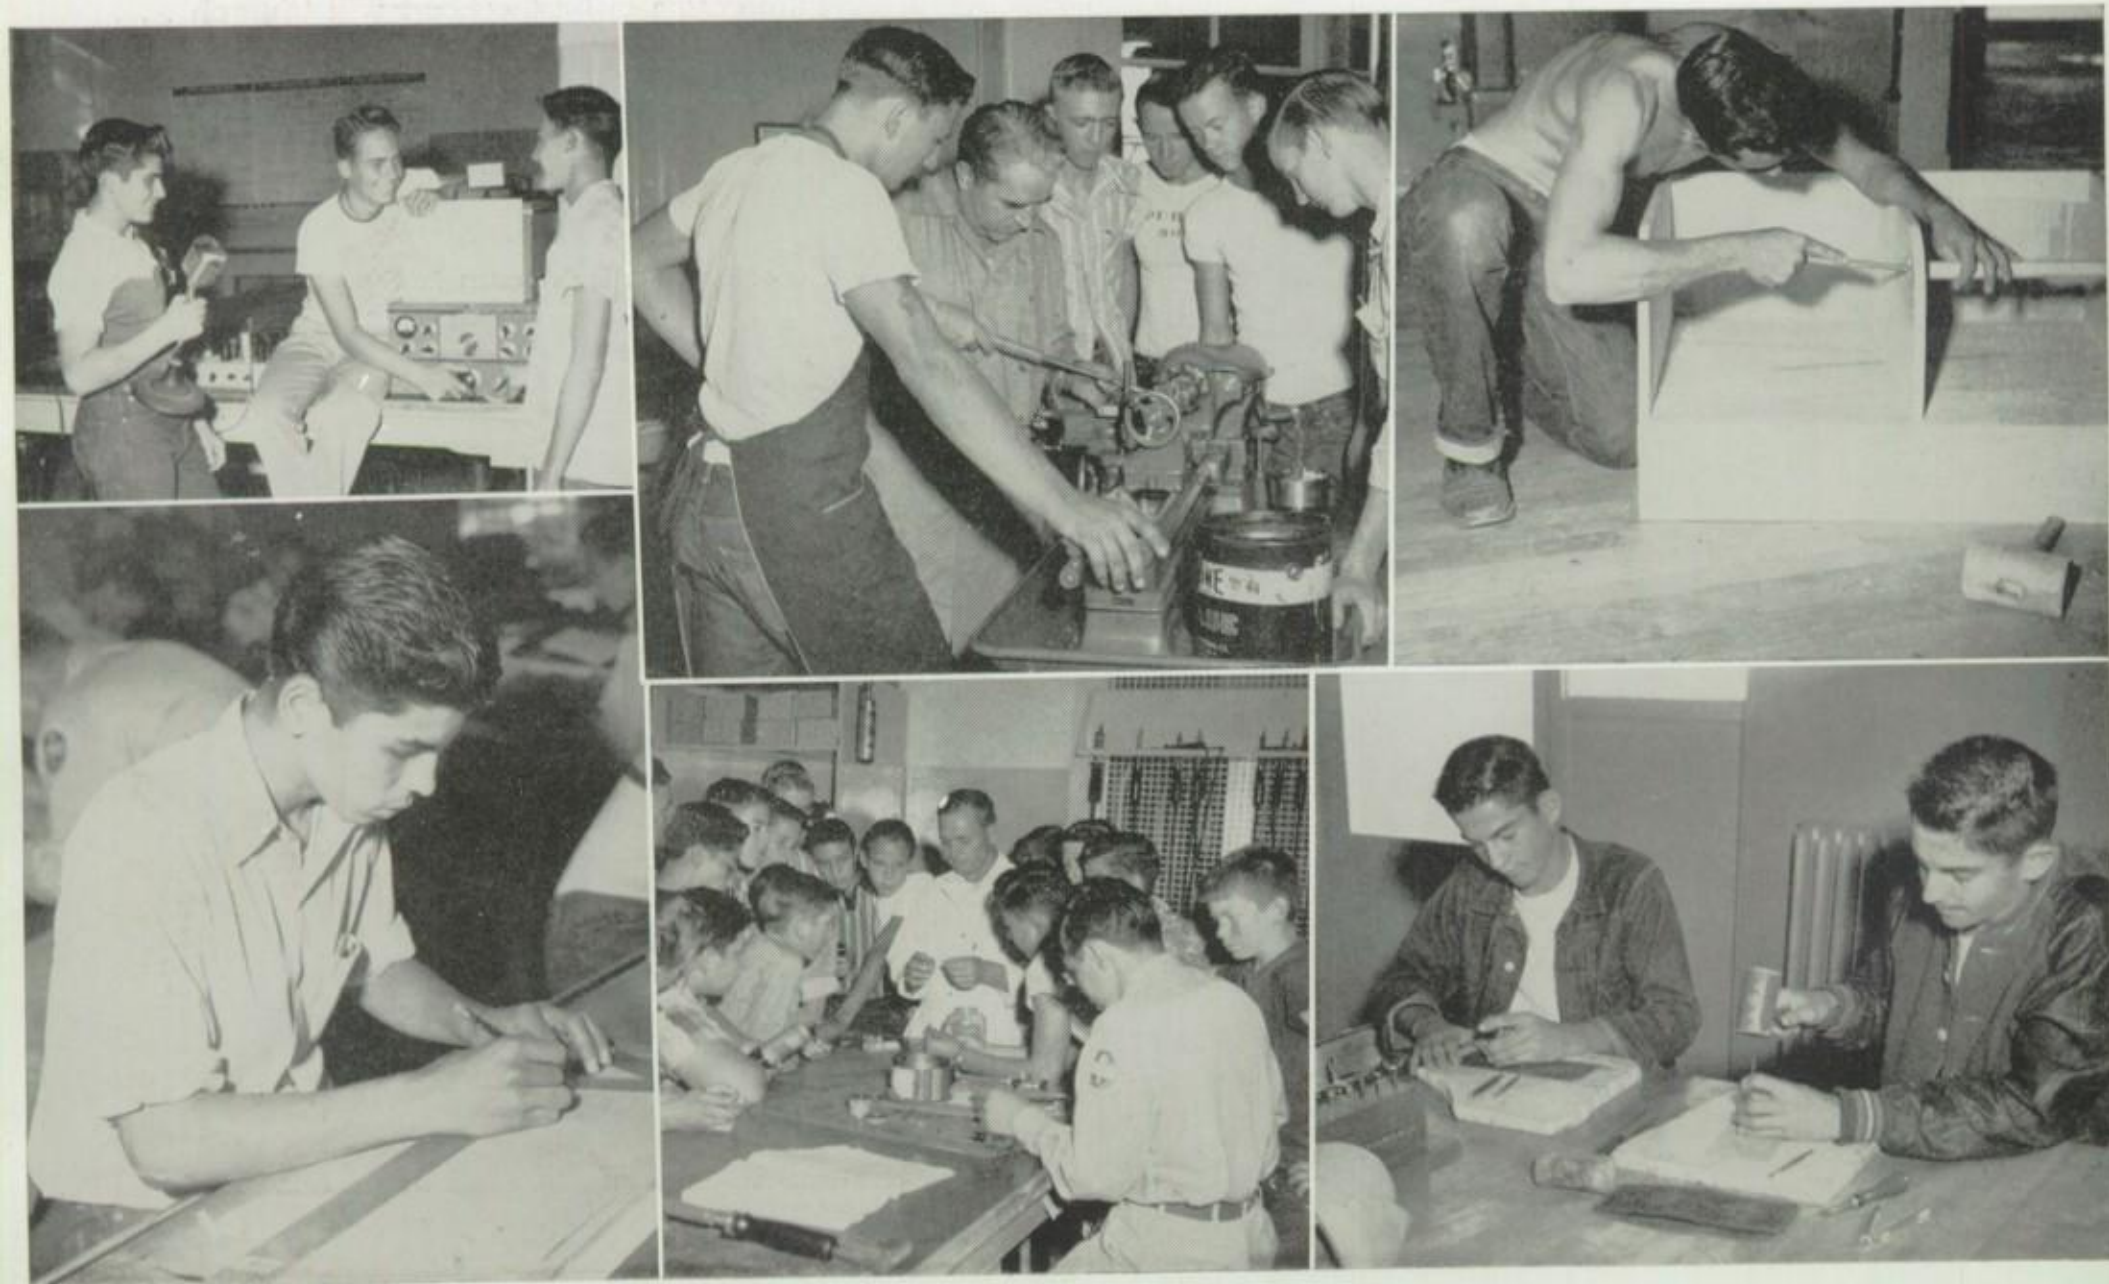

'ROUND she goes! Walker and Black work at a lathe.

BEST WAY TO LEARN anything is to do it. Theory is fine in its place, and we must have a certain amount of it to guide us, but if you want to learn to build anything, better use the saw, hammer, drawing board, lathe, and the rest of it first hand. These students are sure of expert guidance, too, from the teachers. Each instructor is a highly trained specialist.

Up The Ladder To Success

BUSINESS EDUCATION—By which students prepare themselves for careers in commercial fields—finds increasing support both among educators and businessmen who look to the schools for new employees as their businesses expand and promotions take older employees up the ladder to better positions.

Phoenix Union's Department of Business Education has won high praise for its excellence of equipment and the product it brings forth each year . . . students who are well grounded in the fundamentals of typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, filing, and other office procedures.

For Efficiency In Business

DIRECT CONTACT with important business leaders has increased student interest in Business Education courses. Former students who now hold good jobs have addressed students on the campus; bankers, lawyers, personnel directors and others have outlined what the business world expects of the high school graduate.

Mrs. Bea Bush of Valley National Bank stressed attendance, ability to work, and scholarship as prime factors for success. Mr. George Christie, vice-president of First National Bank rated good manners, competence, and good appearance as important. The importance also of accuracy, attention to detail, and ambition to

Slogans, X-Rays Help Our Health

PREVENTION is the best medicine, when it comes to fighting colds, cancer, and tuberculosis, the Health Service Center is convinced. This year marked an all-time high in the school's campaign to combat these dread ills. Over 2500 students were given chest X-rays, and 600 faculty members and school personnel took the tests. Danger from disease is decreased in proportion to the amount of light thrown on its source . . . and the campaign of prevention was sure to pay rich dividends in good health.

THE DETERMINATION to stamp out tuberculosis spread to the city and county. Portable X-ray machines were set up in stores, and people were urged to stop for the few moments required to get the chest X-ray. Students carried home the message urging X-rays for all adults.

SLOGANS BROUGHT prizes to a few students and a lot of caution to the rest of us. Margie Tang, writing on safe-driving, coined this slogan for which she won top prize of a 1951 annual: "To Boast of Speed is to Boast of Death." Pamphlets and posters were used also to popularize health ideas. Praise is due Nurses Banker and Askins for their leadership in the health drive. They guided faculty and student groups who carried the gospel of health to students and parents.

THE SAFETY drive paid dividends, too. Students were careful regarding the spreading of germs. They learned consideration for the other person. Above all, they learned that NOW was the time to act, not tomorrow.

Safety Is Serious Business Today

CAREFUL DRIVERS emerge from the driver-training courses at Phoenix Union, but for the hundreds of other drivers who are never given such training, the Health and Safety Department sent out constant reminders that speed, chance-taking, and general carelessness on the part of a driver may result in serious injury or death. MOTION PICTURES drove home the point—especially good was the picture telling about "teenacide," in which high school students took leading roles. Arizona Highway Department's Andy Case regularly sent items to the PUHS bulletin regarding stupid stunts by drivers.

HONORS FOR US: Mr. Andy Case of Arizona Highway Department, presents our school with a plaque as token of our safe-driving record. Shown also are Mr. Glen Smoot, Dick Siegel, student body

HIS STORIES CARRIED plenty of humor, as well as the tragic facts, to capture our own teenagers' interest. Of the hundreds of Phoenix Union students who have graduated from the driver training classes, not one has been involved in a major automobile accident. Even the record of minor accidents is small . . . and chances are good that the other fellow was as much or more to blame. We're living in a fast-moving, machine-driven age, and it behooves us to be cautious, courteous, and clear-headed when we get behind the wheel of a car.

Librarians Busy Among The Books

IT'S A CONTINUOUS JOB to keep the hundreds of books and magazines in order at the library, as these librarians and student assistants well know. But their efforts pay off when students are able to find what they need to complete a project or to satisfy a desire for good reading.

Army Leaders Are Thus Trained

THE KOREAN situation called for extensive military training this year. Over 140 boys realized this and joined the Reserve Officers Training Corps. They wanted advanced training before they go into regular service, as most boys will. Army leaders come from just such basic units. A special class for senior boys only was started in the second semester. Preparedness is a motto these young Americans can respect.

THE CADETS were taught to march, handle a rifle, read maps; they learned principles of first aid and sanitation, obedience, and discipline by an able cadre headed by Capt. Keith Webb and assisted by Capt. Stanley Mathews and M/Sgt. Theodore Bergeron. Activities were an Armistice Day parade, Military Night competition, Federal Inspection, and a ROTC Club steak fry at South Mountain Park.

Class of '51

These Seniors Sing No Sad Songs

"NO SAD SONGS For Me" said the seniors as they hustled about with a firm determination to make the most of their last year. An all-school play and a talent assembly provided an outlet for proof of the capability of the senior to set an example for the underclassmen. Instead of being sorry to leave school, the Class of '51 looked forward to a pride in graduating and to the new vistas of life before them.

THEIRS WAS A happy year, one filled with memories that will stay with them for the rest of their lives. And they leave behind them a heritage of happiness for the seniors of next year. They take with them experiences that will ever enrich their lives—love of their school and an appreciation of parents and teachers who helped to guide them to better understanding of worthwhile things. Phoenix Union can well be proud of the kids of '51.

WHAT'S AHEAD? The future is as bright as we make it, graduating seniors predict. Center: The Class of '51 meets to plan strategy for the All-School play it is sponsoring, and to discuss other class busi-

*No need,
Best of luck and happiness always. You're a swell kid and I'm sure you'll always get the best what I mean.*

GO GET 'EM! While the Fightin' Coyotes do their stuff on the football turf, their loyal rooters contribute with yips of delight and shrill cheers at every play. This group has abandoned the stands to press the sidelines chains as a grid game draws near to the final gun.

These Juniors Are Always Happy!

HAPPINESS was no hard task for the Class of '52 to achieve. These effervescent juniors who romped their way through classes (taking their cue from the seniors), and worked with a will on class projects, had more fun than a cageful of monkeys eating their way through a ton of bananas and peanuts.

"A NIGHT AT The Mardi Gras" was the theme of the Junior Assembly, while the All-School Play and Junior-Senior Prom formed an important part of the class activities.

AN UNQUENCHABLE gayety which drove teachers wild and lent a spring-fever atmosphere to austere classrooms assured the juniors of a happy, unforgettable year. They have every intention, what is more, of continuing their light-hearted way through 1951-'52 for what they are sure will be the choice year of their young lives!

Mardi Gras Monkeyshines

Pep Merchants All

Dear Noreen,
It has been indeed a pleasure to have known you this past year. I hope that kept your ^{as long as} you'll be as friendly as you were this year.
Jess Celaya

PROUD to stand up for their class are these Freshman officers: Nick Salerno, vice-president; Suzanne Clements, secretary, and Jess Celaya, president.

THOSE WONDERFUL sophomores, always bubbling with life and vitality. It's such a relief not to be a freshman that they sometimes forget to act dignified. They are nonchalant to the extreme, and at other times, awe the observer with inhuman enthusiasm. They add life, pep, and color to the campus, enriching those around them with their ebullience.

A CLASS TALENT assembly offered a marvelous opportunity to work off excess buoyancy. High school means everything to the Class of '53 as they eagerly look forward to the coming year. Their way of life is truly a happy one. If they continue to learn and to maintain their gay viewpoint, they'll increase their circle of friends and their capacity to enjoy each day.

Keller, Ritzman, McFarland, Henderson, Parrish, Carlise, Cochran, Johnson, Bodensadt, Peters, and Maroney. Top Row: Godinez, Huff, Morris, Robins, Cooke, Harrison, Valesquez, DeVriendt, Ford, Garver, Brooks, Blaine, Funston, Schmelzer, Young, Bement, Miller, Parsons, and Sanchez. These girls meet once each week to plan for and carry out various projects.

We've Got A Rep For Lots 'O Pep

PEP! PEP! And more of the same seemed to characterize Coyote activities this year. Upper Left: Part of the crowd at the football assembly held in the Stadium. Upper Right: All Arizona wants is water, says this float, entered by PUHS in the Salad Bowl Parade. We have beauty here already, as Paine, Brady, and Gunther illustrate. Left Center: The Flash Card section gets a workout. Director Young is shown 'way down on Stadium field. Right: Part of the fun of a football trip is eating. Here Coyotes are shown at a Tucson cafeteria. Lower Left: Captains Ludlow and Mariani shake hands before Turkey Game. Center: Sport dance in Boys' Gym after the game. Other scenes are from the pep assembly held in the Stadium.

Class of '54

FRESHMAN OFFICERS: Carol McElhaney, Frank Zimbaro, Dottie Thonen, and Jean Lee muster up smiles of relief over a year just finished, and the anticipation of a pleasurable 1952-53.

Aw, Algebra Wasn't So Tough!

FRESHMEN still in a state of confused shock were brought to complete consciousness by the cold, hard realities of algebra and Latin I. Bewilderment was the lot among members of the Class of '54, who daily seemed to meet new obstacles that persistently blocked the path to understanding. The complexities of high school life were an everlasting puzzle.

AS THE YEAR progressed, freshmen found new enjoyment in friends and activities, one of which, a talent assembly, grew out of the collaboration of the first and second year classes. Confusion gives way to a feeling of "belonging" as the beginners end their first year in happy anticipation of the future. Their experience also gives them reason to encourage next year's freshmen.

Funmakers, These Underclassmen!

Campus Capers . . . By Coyote Cutups

DOOMED TO EXTINCTION . . . Hittle's plate of spaghetti is not long for this world. "Stinky," aided and abetted by the eloquent West, draws an admiring crowd. Upper Right: Strictly "leftovers"—from the Les Folles, that is—are these dimpled darlings, Slack, Mayberry, and Simmons. Cellars "projects" himself. Left Center: Strictly on the beam and very UN-square are these hot-rod Harrys and their souped-up salamander. Right Center: Thompson and Kirk look right chummy. That stricken look on Martin's face can mean only one thing, but Garver looks rather skeptical, much to Hammer-ton and King's amusement. Lower Left: Watch out, McDonald! Wood WOULD get her man. Lower Right: The old gray mare ain't what she used to be, speculate these victims of a publicity stunt.

Pursuing Art With Cameras

Dear Horace
 Remember the night after school when we were thankful. This has been a wonderful year but its over.
 Lets hope the next one can be as good.
 Love & stuff
 "Bee Seelig"

Dear Horace:
 Well this is the end of a perfect year.
 Don't ever forget the fun we had after Oratorio rehearsals. Wish we could do it again next year. Keep up the good work in Oratorio for Milton Stay as nice as possible you are Good luck in everything you do.

ROYALTY SMILES: Here are Princess Nola Hallett and her attendants, in the finals of the school-wide voting for Salad Bowl candidates on

Happiness Is Everywhere

- HAPPINESS is where you find it. With the gang at a game, at the drive-in after the game, at the dance, on a hayride, at a barn dance, at the roller rink . . .
- HAPPINESS is being with the rest of the gang. It is participation in sports, school work, bull sessions, at the Cafeteria, under the shade of a palm tree, on the Auditorium steps before class time . . .
- HAPPINESS is being alive in a wonderful, wonderful country, where the sky is blue, the sun is bright, people wear smiles and are happy.

We Cheered Them On To Victory

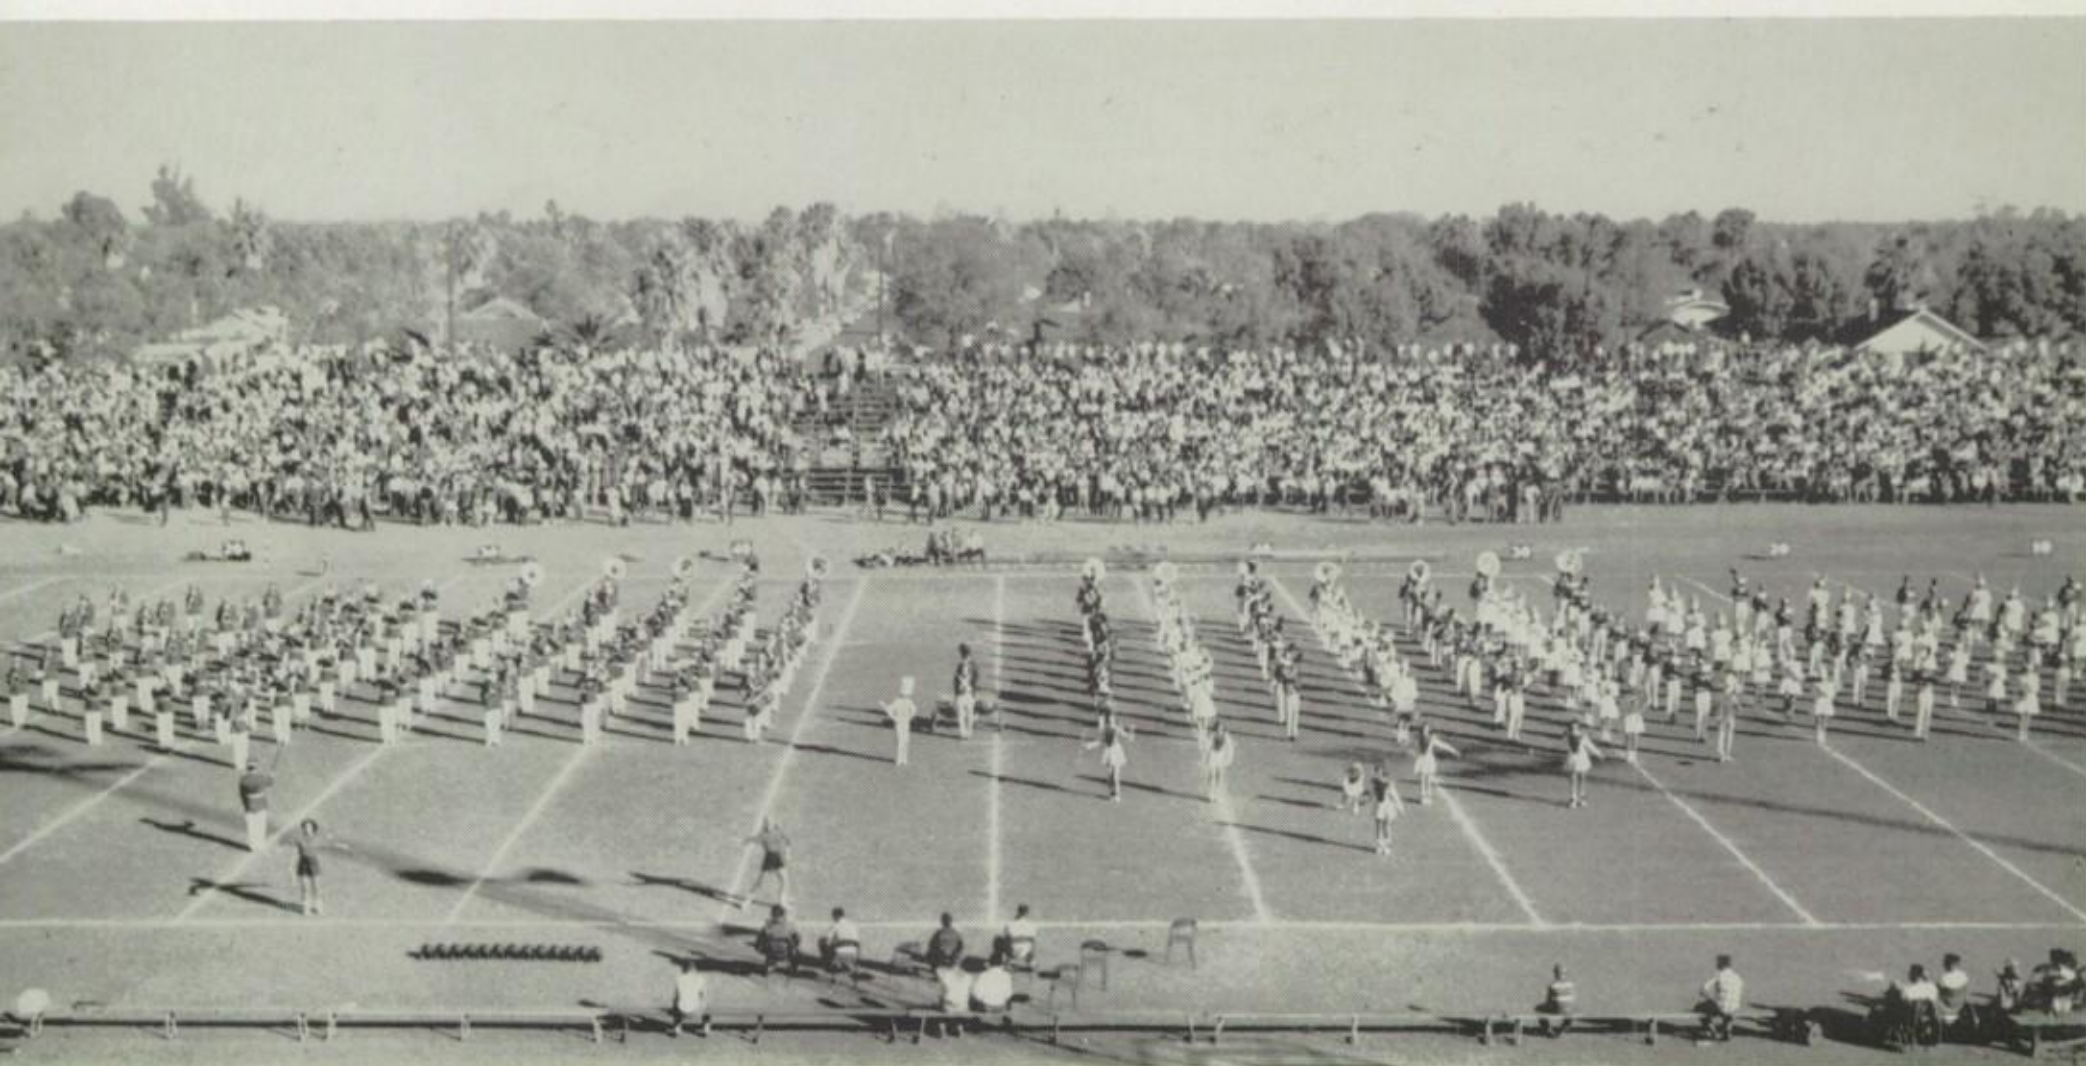

EVERYBODY likes competition, especially in athletic games. Our football season alone had enough competitive razzamatazz in it to do for a dozen high school student bodies . . . but nobody would think it was too much!

WAS EVERYBODY happy? You bet! Laughing, cheering, exulting in our team's prowess gave us an abundance of joy. You just don't know you're alive until you've cheered the team on to victory! And when we happened to lose a game, then we had each other to talk it over, to convince each other that we almost won, or perhaps should have, or that next time we'd sure show 'em!

STRIKE UP THE BAND! Combined musical groups of North Phoenix and Phoenix Union High Schools thrill the Thanksgiving Day crowds at intermission of the Turkey Grid Game.

Cheerleaders DeLuxe

HEY! GIVE A CHEER! Better cheerleading has never been seen at any school than we enjoy at Phoenix Union, many a patron has declared. Here are eight reasons why we think the citizens are justified in boasting about Coyote spirit: Front row: Gartrell, Oldynski, Woodall; Center: Lily Mendoza, Yee, Lucy Mendoza; Back: Valdivia, Bartlett.

Beat North High! Win The Game!

WITH THE Big Game due on the morrow, loyal Coyotes swarmed to the Quad to cheer their team and put the hex on those rambunctious Hosses up North. Mustang Star Mitcham takes an ignominious turn (upper left) while cheerleaders (top) urge us to more noise. Left Center: More Hoss athletes, in effigy, are given the business in a stunt featuring Hallett, Beer, Howell, and Emmett. Right Center: Yes, Director Zorn and his Pep Band keep things on a harmonious, and noisy plane! Left Bottom: They'll learn not to forget about Color Day! It was the Bull Pen for these Coyotes who failed to wear the Red and Black. Right: West and "Stinky" entertain with tales of Coyote prowess.

Beggar On Horseback

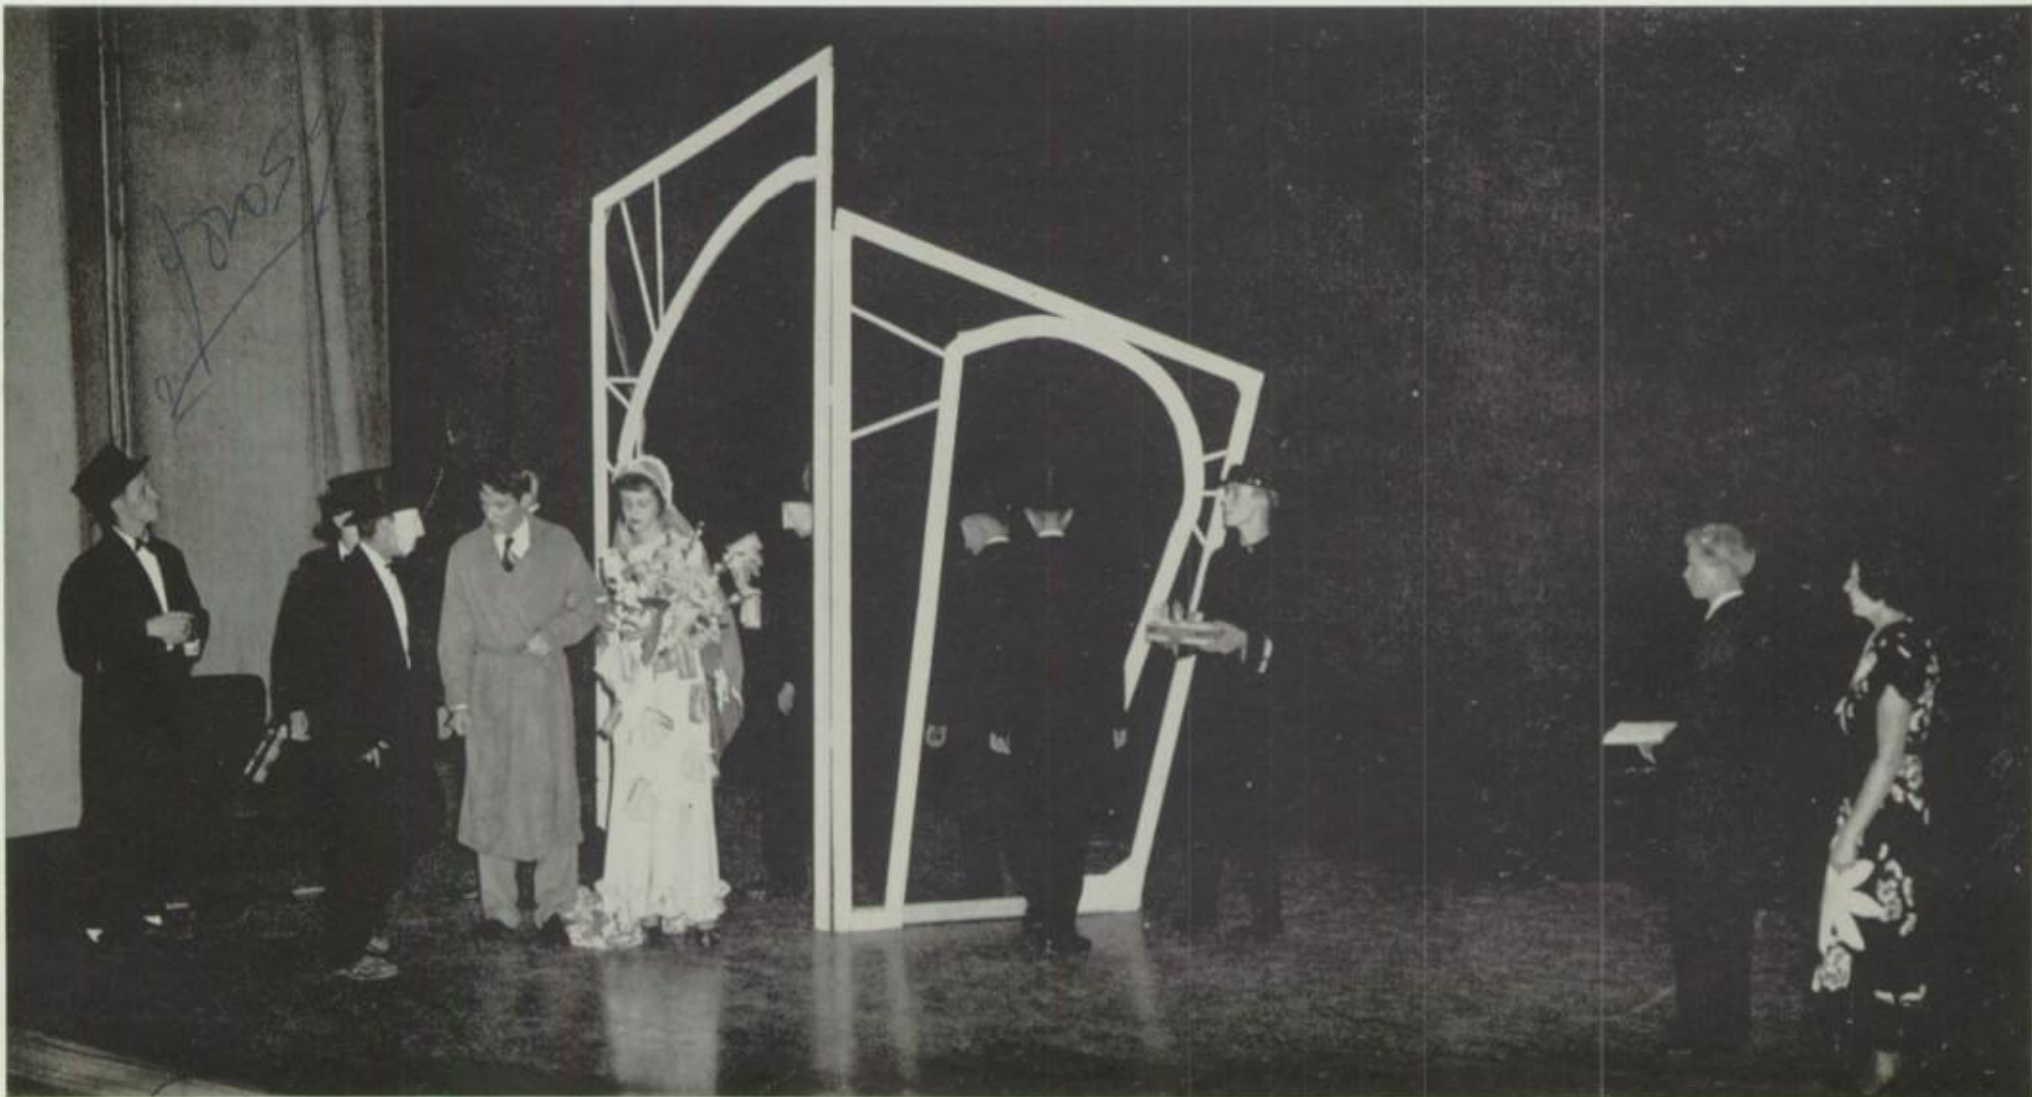

NIGHTMARE: Neil McRae, disillusioned composer, seeks revenge, and murder with a paper knife follows. Top to bottom shows McRae (Harry Stiteler with knife), Mrs. Cady (Berniece Steinberg on chair), Homer, Gladys, and Mr. Cady (Wendy McDonald, Pat Clements, and Claude Jones, respectively, on floor). Homer had sworn that the law "will get Mr. McRae, the dirty dog!"

"BEGGER ON HORSEBACK," a Kaufman and Connelly collaboration, made stage history at Phoenix Union, October 19 and 20. The "nightmare" comedy, with its waltzing sextet invariably appearing time and again in the most unexpected places as ushers in the wedding procession, dancing teachers, jurors, and the like, kept the audience rollicking with mirth. There was real reason for interest during intermission, when newsboys distributed papers telling of the "murder" which had just occurred. Lois Selby Halladay directed the farce, in which Harry Stiteler starred as the frustrated hero. Supporting actresses were Pat Clements and Joyce Ausmus. Don't forget that the audience, too, took an active part in this hilarious comedy.

IN A STATE OF bewildered perplexity, Neil McRae consents to marry Gladys Cady. Walking into the church as wedding bells peel, are Neil (Harry Stiteler) and Gladys (Pat Clements). Far right, the minister (Don Busk) and Mrs. Cady (Berniece Steinberg), anticipate the couple's entrance. Fragmentary scenery added to the weird atmosphere of the production.

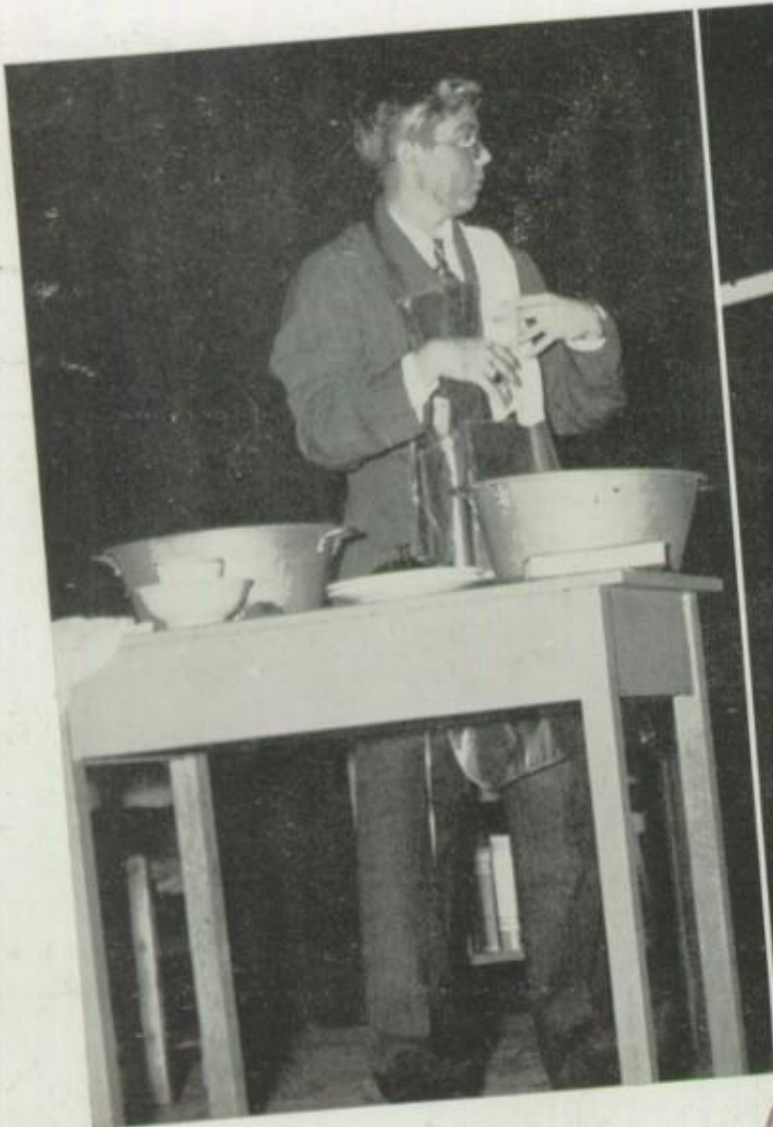

DAUBERS may eventually become artists with the brush. At least that's the ambition Adams, Woodall, and Bartlett have, as they prepare a canvas backdrop for another All-School play. The boys are representatives of Mr. Jacquot's stagecraft crew.

ALL TANGLED up in the "Tangled Web" is McGrath, who did a masterly job in this one-act play presented by dramatics students. In the scene are Carolyn Miller, Chuck Rossenback, McGrath, and Marilyn Gabay.

On Stage, Everybody! Let's Make Believe . . .

STILL BEMUSED is McGrath, trying in vain to rid himself of a trouble-causing diamond . . . and while all that smoochin' (at right) is going on in the All-School play, "Beggar On Horseback," featuring Joyce Ausmus and Harry Stiteler.

Boy, do I like to be in plays!!!!

Our School Plays Were Magnificent

"REALLY, AM I sophisticated?" asks Tillia Payne. Yo' shore is, Tillia! Appearing in the All-School play, "Magnificent Obsession," were Thespians (first row) Woodall, Payne, Hawley; second row: De Leske, Kope, Brady, Bement, Preizner; back row: Vines, Williams, Pasekoff, and Martin.

EXCELLENT PLAYS entertained our students this year. Direction, talent, and settings were outstanding, and so was the selection of plays offered. One of the best was "Magnificent Obsession" by Lloyd Douglas. Directed by Mr. Willard Jacquot, the drama effectively entertained as well as instructed the patrons in a life philosophy worth following. Moreover, the cast did an almost professional job of the play, acting with a convincing sincerity of purpose not usual among teenagers.

IF YOU BELIEVE in yourself, there is nothing that can stop you from becoming a useful, even famous person. "Magnificent Obsession" dealt with the transformation of a ne'er-do-well young man into a highly efficient physician who proves to the world that faith can do miraculous things. The remarkable stage sets were designed and constructed by Mr. Jacquot and his student helpers. Long hours and hard work paid well in audience appreciation.

Their Music Always Pleases . . .

MUSIC-MINDED Phoenicians were given an added treat this year when the Concert Orchestra presented, in conjunction with A Cappella Choir, an evening of captivating rhythm and harmony. Such numbers as "Rosamonde Overture," by Schubert; "The Song Is You," by Kern; "Syncopated Clock," by Anderson, and "The Sailor's Dance," by Gliere give you an idea of the variety the young musicians had prepared for their patrons. Under direction of Mr. Lombardi, the Orchestra is fast gaining a reputation for excellence.

SINGING IS an all-year activity for the Oratorio Society, but when Holy Week arrives in the spring, this 140-voice group takes the spotlight. Directed by Mr. Rasbury, the Society presents on Good Friday one of the sacred oratorios for the pleasure of students and townspeople. This year the group sang "The Last Seven Words of Our Lord," set to music by Mercadante. The difficult classics were well handled by the youthful singers, holding to the tradition set by previous societies directed by Mr. Rasbury.

ORATORIO SOCIETY—Sopranos: Ausmus, Batmon, Bement, Boyer, Breese, Brown, Burns, Bynon, Cain, Coleman, Cornish, Dale, DeMente, Daugherty, Forman, Fritz, Hinton, Horton, Mager, McFarland, Miller, Nulf, Parker, Pattison, Pine, Pryor, Redman, Rizo, Roberts, Rothwell, Rowand, Rutherford, Seolas, Sipes, Szczypa, Torres, Wells, Whitmer, Williams, Young. Altos: Acosta, Beer, Beutler, Blunda, Cicchinelli, Clements, Couzens, Cowan, De Lucia, Dennis, Duran, Eddleman, Fennell, Glascock, Green, Harp, Harrison, Hunter, Johnson, Knepper, Lopez, Mariscal, Moses, New, Nickel, Orth, Roads, Romero, Rollo, Rose, Rzodkiewicz, Sanders, Simmons, Stephenson, Wagner, Watkins, Weed, Wilkins, Wingo, Wright. Tenors: Campbell, Celeya, Kittell, Lovas, McDermott, Mocherson, Oyler, Salas, Salerno, Simpson, Skelton, Wells, Williams, Wine. Baritones: D. Adams, R. Adams, Anderson, Atchley, Bearden, Bordon, Bordo, Buechner, Brannan, Carman, Clark, Denton, Devenny, Dugan, Eldridge, Hicks, Howell, Hutchens, Kaplan, King, Lievsay, McDaniel, McGrath, McKenna, Musgrave, Neal, Pasekoff, Plock, Reeves, Roberts, Schwenke, Scott, Serafini, Simpson, I. Smith, M. Smith, Sparck, Stiteler, Taylor, Tocker, Waters, Wolff, Young. Membership in Oratorio Society is an honor cherished by the singers. They are prompt in attendance, sincere in practice.

Maids Of Music And Rhythm

PLUMES, cocky hats, and beauty characterize our high-stepping majorettes as they lead the bands. Front Row: Virginia Howell, Patricia Howell, band mascot, and Boulden. Back Row: Nelda Ashford, Doris Kurbat, Beverly Wiesenhoefer, and Darlene Heart.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR really has a 1950-51 record to be proud of. Comprised of girls chosen for their ability to harmonize as well as excellence of voice, the choir has made a real name for itself under the direction of Mrs. Helen Donaldson. They first sang for the Open House program, later for Les Folies, Rotary Club, and various other civic organizations.

AIDED BY THE Concert Orchestra, the choir presented it's first annual concert, and appeared as guest artists on the Sunnyslope concert series. Their Easter performance at the Papago Park Sunrise Service was acclaimed as a highlight of the Holy Week services. It was the first time a high school choir had ever sung at the service.

Phillips, Schultz, Gibson, Toth, Lazok, Davis, McCoy, Johnson, Schectman, Roberts, Carpenter, Rains, Davis. Back Row: Gill, Sutter, Wickersham, Dooley, Littlepage, Jackson, Cooper, Johnson, Chesely, Mc Murren, Barnes, C. J. Miller, Gunther, Velasquez, Durham, Kano, C. Miller, earce, Houg, Havner, Payne, Lindsey, Best, Sedig, Kapp, Rodriquez. Helen Donaldson is director and Mary Louise Brion, accompanist.

CONCERT BAND PERSONNEL—Flutes: Fisher, Scharter, Towles, Priestman, Finley, Allen. Oboes: Felton, Lemley. Clarinets: Haller, Townsend, Pavalko, Seymour, Knorr, Kurbat, Gale, Klebe, Snow, Gibbons, Smelser, Brown, Goldfarb, Hickman, Faust, Torre, Siqueiros, Jones, Tovar, Gilbert, Dumas, Lindemulder, Kinsley, Rivin, Carruthers, Fleenor, Johannpeter. Bassoons: Porter, Atwater. Saxophones: Voelker, Williamson, Watson, Frazee, Huerta. French Horns: Garrett, Cormey, Licklider, Cross, Fleenor, Adams. Cornets: Stenvick, Hummer, Peck, Fellers, Bennett, Wymer, Prestwich, Finnell, Tackett, Sexton. Trumpets: Hood, Sperger, Sebastian, Davis. Flugel Horns: Nolen, Adams. Euphoniums: Edge, James, Espinosa, Halloway, Brynoff, Hood. Trombones: Williams, Shores, Houghton, Burrow, Atkerson, Mapston, McElhaney, Brown, Dittell, Kittell, Ingram. Basses: Maroney, Patrick, Puckett, Wang, Nelson, Brock, Gates, Riggs, Harris, Lunt. Marimba, Bells, Vibraharp: Booher, Szabo. Timpani: Smith. Percussion: Edland, Eubank, Burk, Schultz, Mapston, Bordo.

One, Two! Strike Up The Band!

OUR BAND DEPARTMENT offers young musicians unusual opportunities for musical growth. There are five separate bands, each playing an important part in the general school activities. The Concert Band of 100 pieces has served as the Salad Bowl official band each New Year's Day. This group also is the official band for the 20-30 Junior Rodeo, and plays for many other civic organizations during the school year. Many music scholarships await outstanding members of the band as they graduate. Director is Mr. Harvey Zorn.

ONLY ORGANIZATION of its kind in the West is the 75-piece Girls' Band. This musical group plays for assemblies, parades, and several concerts . . . in addition to augmenting the Concert Band for appearances at football games, Masque of the Yellow Moon, the Rodeo Parade, and the Salad Bowl game. The Swing Band is made up of the best players from the boys' and the girls' units, playing for basketball games, assemblies, and the like. The various bands play at least 100 programs in a school year.

and Betty Armstrong do a modernistic number. Dances, lights, backgrounds and music were outstanding in the Girls' League show.

Do You Remember Those Days?

"DO YOU REMEMBER" derby hats, checked pants, the Charleston, rolled stockings, rouged knees, the Big Apple, the jitterbug? Patrons of Les Folies' 23rd annual Girls' League extravaganza were treated to a revival of all the favorite fads of the last half-century. Poignant memories of "the good old days" brought many a laugh, and perhaps a few tears.

A BRILLIANT modern dance interpretation of the 1928 stock market crash highlighted the program. Talent numbers ranged from a vaudeville black-face act to First and Second World War memory-tuggers, and included current popular songs and novelty numbers. Director was Mr. Willard Jacquot, who also was the first man ever to direct Les Folies.

WHY WALK if you can ride? Cherre Gilbert solves the pedestrian problem by hitching a ride with the ROTC roller skaters. Right: Take Me Out to the Ball Game brought chuckles and reminiscences to the old timers who saw the show.

Girlie Capers Pleased Us

LES FOLIES Mistress of Ceremonies (upper left) was Roxie Green. Upper Right: "Dearie, Do You Remember" the Opening Chorus? Schmelzer, Angulo, Hibben, McFarland, Owens, Russell, and Hallett are the only ones visible. Middle Center: "The Hungry Seven" were HUNGRY—we can count only FIVE members! Middle Right: Wha' happen? The Midnight and Roses assembly Pajama Chorus consisting of Green, Pease, Givens, Weisenhoefer, Howell, Hallett, and Gabay. Lower Left: The Spitzenhorn Sisters, if you please! Lower Center: Gunther and Oldynski out at the "old ball-game." Lower Right: Fitz contemplates Emmett's gay whirling.

Fun In School

When We're Happy We Like To Sing

Merry Christmas

CHRISTMAS comes but once a year, they say, but we make it last the year around! We like to make other people happy. We like to sing songs, entertain parents and other students, and give generously to those who are in need. Christmas time merely epitomizes what we believe in right along.

HAPPINESS is genuine only when we can share it with others. We like to smile because our grin lights up the other person's face with smiles. We like to think that our happy thoughts and our songs make others feel as good inside as we ourselves feel. Let's be happy . . . and see that our neighbors enjoy that wonderful feeling, too.

O, COME, ALL Ye Faithful! Christmas carols are a part of our Yule Week enjoyment. Eight members of A Cappella get us in the mood. Shown are (starting at bottom) Riggins, Wickersham, Burr, Sutter, Hendricks, Brion, Miller, and Hayes.

Yuletide Hi-Jinks:

MUSIC MAID: Accordin' to her accordion, Musician Burr thinks life is rather wonderful, too. She plays zestfully for the Spotlights' royal family (in background) and for the rest of us at a talent assembly.

Right: Corny was the corn this pair of comedians poured out at the Spotlights' show. McDonald (right) pours out a tale of woe to his patient pal Rossenbach.

Shall We Put On Another Talent Parade? Okay!

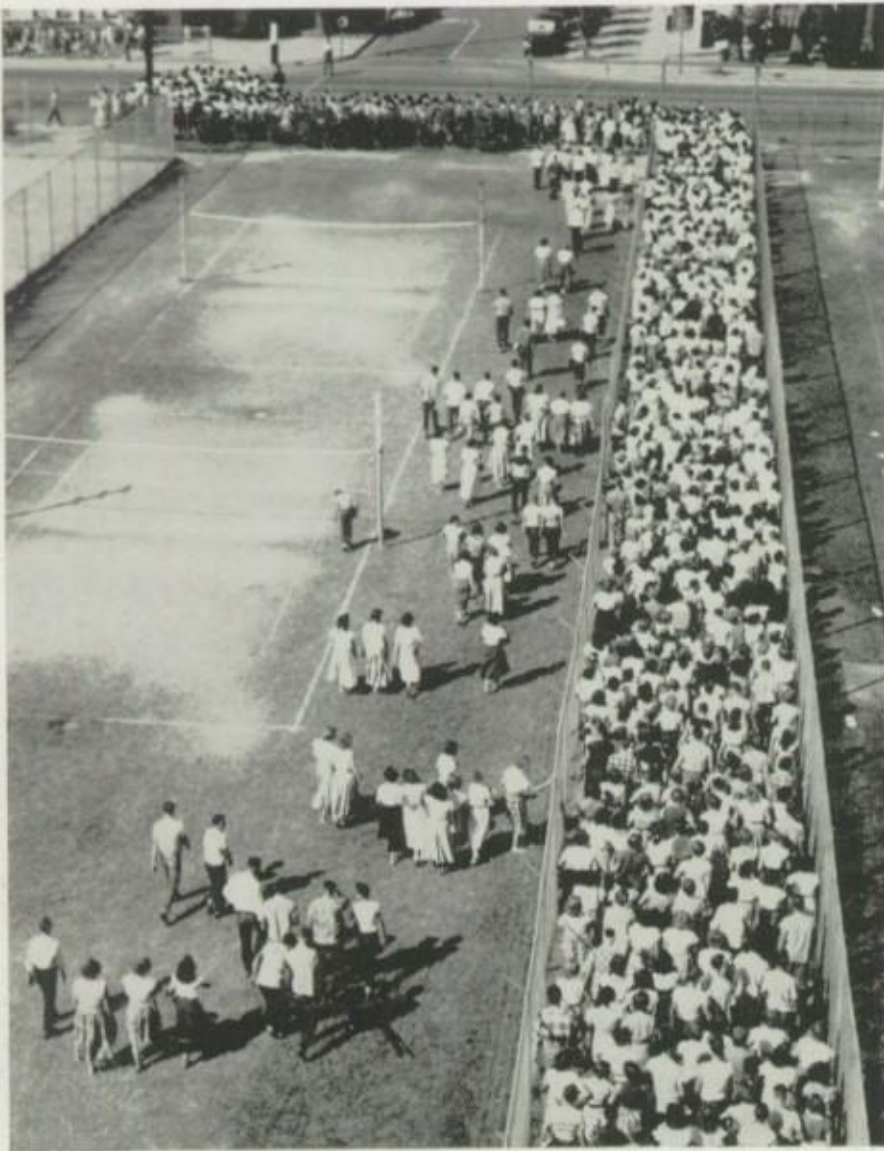

THEATRICALS come easy to our Phoenicians. They are right at home on the stage and will give you a talent assembly any old time they can get someone to emcee and direct the show. This year has been unusual in the richness and abundance of such student entertainment. And you can bet that those who participate will treasure the memory long, long after they've forgotten the War of 1812 or how to bisect an angle!

IN ADDITION to the fun of participating, students get practice in many important ways. They learn to plan an entertainment; they must hold talent judging tryouts, select the best performers, and estimate audience appeal, variety, and timing. To be gained are self confidence, good fellowship, and a sense of achievement that comes only from the realization that hard work and co-operation can pay rich dividends.

NOW YOU SEE IT, now y'don't! Magicians Kennedy and Egger set the stage for some hocus-pocus designed originally for Mor Follies.

We're Big Enough To Cheer . . .

THOUSANDS of students watched the Coyotes demonstrate grid tactics that morning in the Stadium, and here are a few, heading back to second period classes.

NOT TOO LONG ago, Phoenix Union's student body exceeded 5500 persons. And that was before they had added the Boys' Gym or other places for classrooms! Then the people of Phoenix built a new college, two more high schools, fitted out the old college into a technical high school, and cut Phoenix Union down to 3000 students.

And we were feeling sorta small, until they got us all together in the Stadium for that morning football rally. Then we realized that 3000 students is a lot of people, and that if only half that many got behind the team or any other representatives of our school that needed support, we were still a pretty big student body in a mighty big school!

THIS YEAR WE accomplished a number of praiseworthy objectives. We developed an outstanding cheer and pep section, including the brand new Flash Card group; we produced one of the state's great high school bands; and we proved that no matter what the situation, we as students were good sports in every sense. Are we trying to pat ourselves on the back? Well-l-l . . . perhaps! But we're not bashful about our pride in doing a good job. And we're mighty proud of the teachers and student leaders who helped us to succeed!

MOR FOLLIES might have been lots of fun, we decided after seeing these lads in dance practice! At right are Peter, Kempson, Niles, Walker, Christie, and Sandell, who look less at home in these dresses than in a grid uniform! The boys finally did manage an appearance as ballet belles in an assembly program. Left: Wilson, attendant at the Costume Room, tries a dress coat on Urias.

Winning Or Losing . . . We're Always Loyal To Our School

SCHOOL SPIRIT is an everyday matter with most of us. We enjoy our PUHS, our campus, the gang, and yes, even our teachers come in for a portion of our particular likes! We like being on hand when there's a rally, or a game, or a band concert. . . . We like being a part of the Big Scene. School life means a great deal to us.

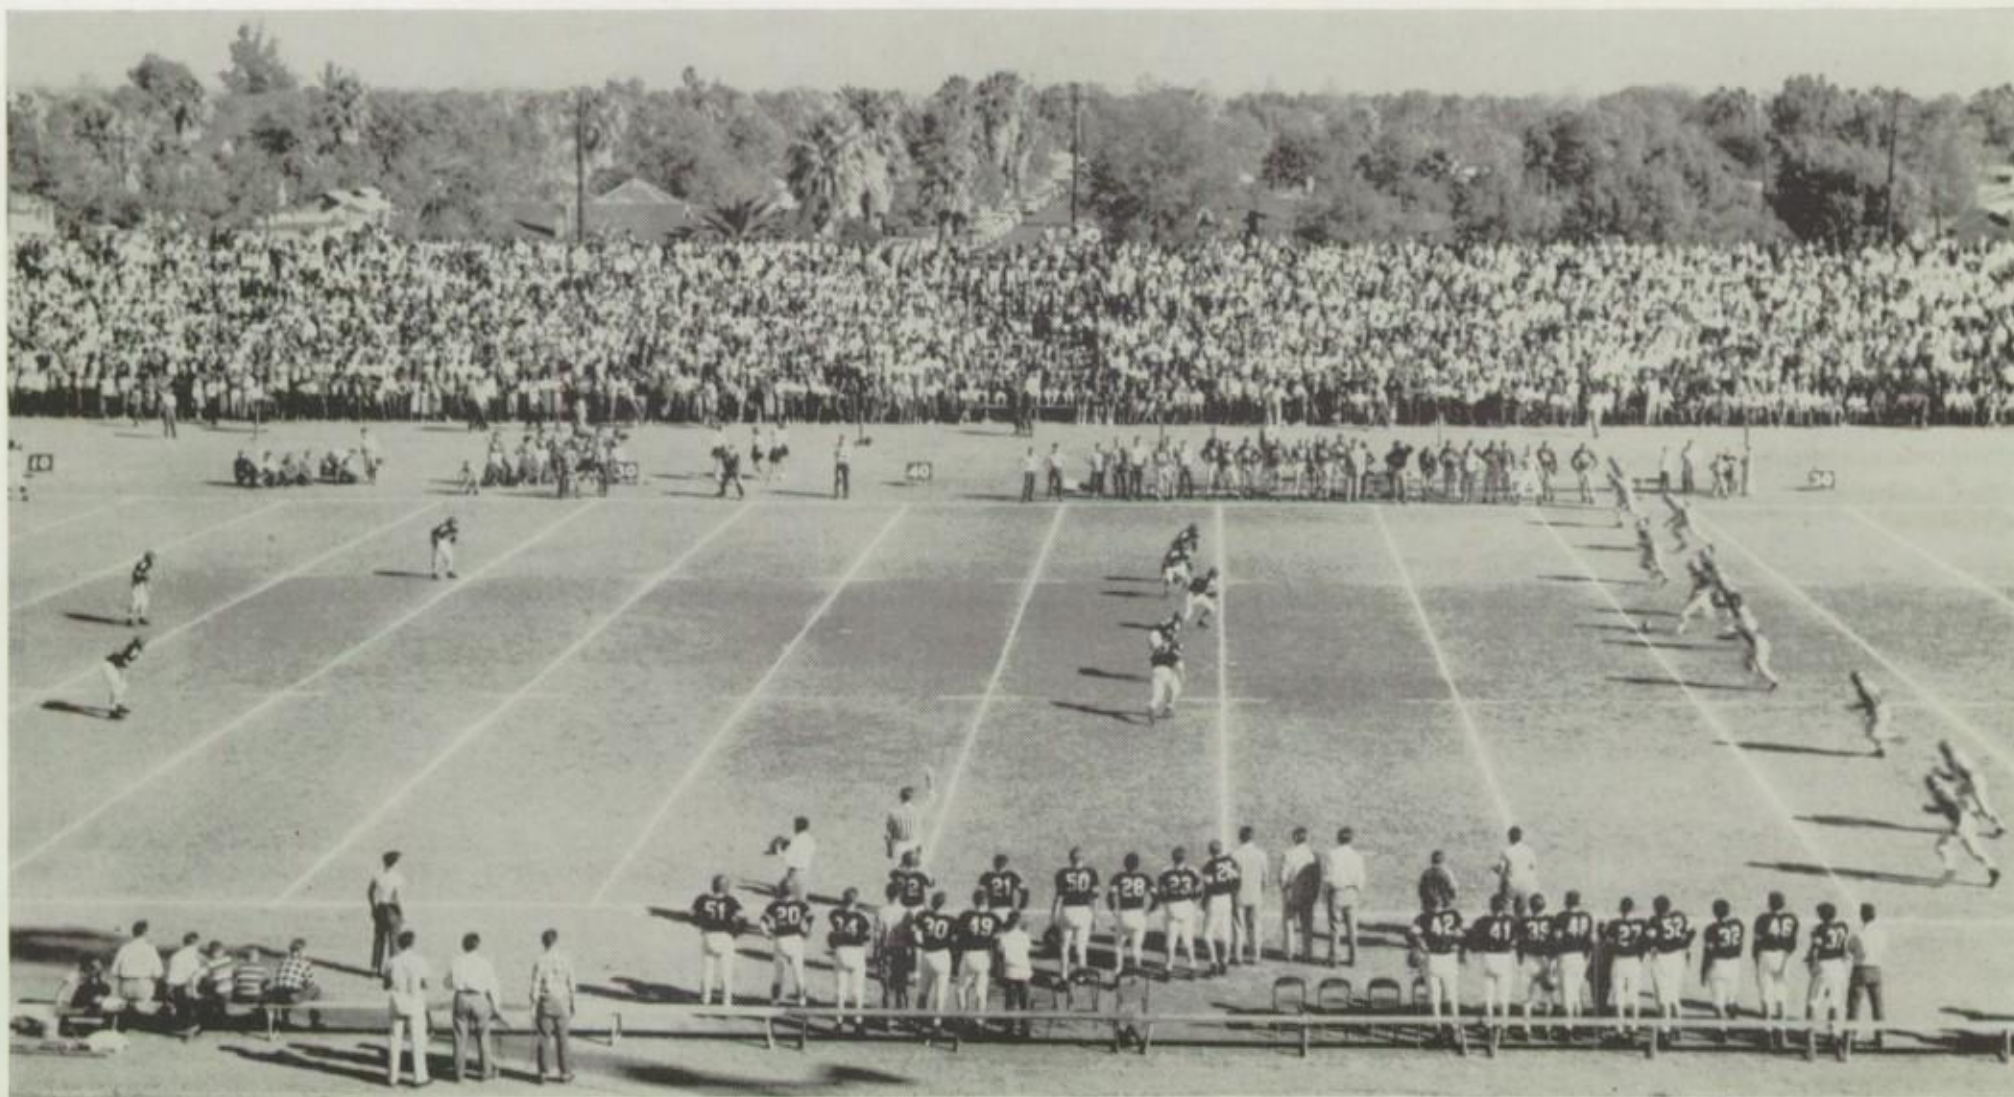

WE YELP ABOUT too much homework—when we know even a little more wouldn't really hurt; we shake our heads dolefully at grade card time; we moan and groan about getting up early to beat the tardy bell . . . but all the time we're having a wonderful time at a wonderful school. And that's for sure!

OPEN HOUSE CROWDS. From the balcony of the Home Economics Building we can see the Concert Band ready to strike up another smart tune.

THE KICK-OFF! Bitter rivalry between the North and South, so to speak, makes the Turkey Game the year's most exciting. All sorts of records fall, and this year's was no exception: we tied (20-20) again! That's two ties in a row for the Coaches Black.

Publications

ANNUAL STAFF leaders this year were Virginia Ruth Howell, left, business manager, and Mary Lou Brion, editor-in-chief.

Nobody Loafs As Deadlines Loom

LET'S GET the Phoenician Annual out on time . . . ! That was the challenge every member of the yearbook staff had to meet, even back in October, when May 1, 1951, seemed too unrealistic even to imagine. But enough old timers on the staff remembered the rush and confusion of other years to prod the crew—photographers, copyreaders, and page planners—to get on the beam. Yes, they all wanted the Phoenician to meet, and even exceed, the deadline. That meant working nights and some Saturdays, hours after school, and on holidays. But there was never a lack of willing hands or of enthusiasm. The annual staff did meet every deadline . . . and all of us are proud of the fact!

COYOTE JOURNAL troubles arrived early, with announcement we'd lost heavily the preceding year. So, out the window went plans for elaborate newspaper issues. Instead, we concentrated on selling more ads and subscriptions, trimming the size of stories without reducing the quality of news coverage, and stepping up the sales campaign on issue days. The Journal did a good job of coverage; clubs were given space for social doings, sports and dramatics received attention, and the staff of 30 reporters got a wealth of training in how to interview people, how to spot news, and how to explain why our Journal issues were so small! Biggest job of the year was the final Honor Edition.

IT'S A WOMAN'S WORLD, when it comes to editing copy for the Coyote Journal. Here Editors Claudette Evans and Joan Pepper bend to the task of re-writing a news lead. Right: Feature Editor Genny Pease has just hit off a snappy headline . . . and is she pleased!

It's Great To Be Alive And Happy!

PROUD SENIORS admiring their class rings (top left) are Tang, Malamas, Holman, Mayberry, and Rowe. As you can see for yourself, the Senior Council Western Party was a huge success.

Funny Photos of Faculty . . .

Midnight . . . and Roses

Oh, That Wonderful Noche En Mexico!

"UNA NOCHE En Mexico" or "One Night In Mexico" was one of the most successful dances of the school year. The semi-formal, sponsored by Las Estrellitas, carried a romantic, south-of-the-border theme. A color scheme of green, white, and red, Mexico's national colors, featured the decorations. A patio scene, an old-fashioned Spanish fountain, and a prize mambo highlighted the evening. Even Ralph Chevarrias' band was distinguished by ruffled shirts and sarapes. Upper Left: Nevarrez and Abillar entertain at intermission. Right: These girls made the posies for the ball. (Standing) Rodriguez, Maria Rodriguez, Rios, Ortega, (seated) Torres, Ulloa, and Gaxiola. Lower Right: Gaxiola, Ulloa, and escorts arrive early.

Roving Camera Gleanings . . .

Organizations

FRIENDSHIP is a wonderful thing . . . especially when you are a stranger in a strange school, a big, bustling, busy school with more teachers than there were students back in Podunk High where you had come from. Of all clubs on our campus, the Friendship group extends the warmest welcome to those who want companionship, a bright smile of greeting, and that feeling of belonging.

SERVICE to the community has always been the watchword of Auditorium Club. These girls usher at all entertainment functions in the Auditorium, often four or more times in a week. They develop social grace, a dignity that can come only in dealing with the public, and a strong sense of responsibility. They also see many famous stars and excellent performances.

Cactus Coeds

CACTUS COEDS: For once, the Cactus Coed group found some desert plants to use in their annual picture! The floral exhibit came, courtesy of McElhaney's. Standing are Hayes, Carver, Martin, Roberts, Anthony, Mrs. Phillips, Best, Norman, Greer, and Soderberg. Seated are Zannis, Harman, Sutter, Stevens, and Neidzeckas.

Coeds With Purposeful Objectives

ARE CLUBS worthwhile? What benefits may a new student expect from membership in a campus organization? Any club member will tell you the good outweighs the poor in evaluating such activity. Best of all benefits is the working with others and making new friends while giving your time to help others.

CACTUS COEDS, otherwise known as the Horizon Club, has had an interesting year. They have heard numerous speakers, including one from France and another from a local modeling school. They visited a printery and a mortuary, as part of a know-your-city project. Most of the members hope to attend the sectional meeting of Horizon Club at Long Beach, Calif. President was Nancy Sutter, sponsor, Mrs. Phillips.

SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS are many at Phoenix Union, and their purposes are similar: to help the less fortunate and to improve our own philosophy of living. One can't have too many friends . . . and the best way to acquire and keep friends is to be with people who are interested in keeping busy and accomplishing good.

NURSING as a profession appeals to members of the Florence Nightingale Club. They visit the various hospitals in the city, consult with trained nurses, read all available literature about nursing, and arrange their school courses to qualify them to enter nurses' training after their graduation here. Their interest in this field is kept at a high peak by Sponsor Askins and Mrs. Banker of the Health Department.

FUTURE NURSES: Members of Florence Nightingale Club are (standing) Ridenour, Dumas, Eliason, Elston, Lussier, Buckhannon, Zapata, Segoula, Pack, J. Northey, I. Northey, Cornell, and Gephart. Seated: Giltinan, Gunther, Espinoza, Cruz, and Mrs. Askins.

Buenos Dias! Como Esta Usted?

Always Active And Interested

LOS COYOTES ESPANOL spent their club time learning about customs of Spain and Mexico through speakers and the use of slides. Mrs. Adams sponsored the group. You are bound to find Stadium Club members present when any activities are in progress on Montgomery Field. This club is one of our oldest, having existed 25 years. Recently girls have outnumbered boys in the group. Mr. Eagan is sponsor.

LAS ESTRELLITAS has many activities as proof of its vitality. For the first time in the club history, the girls sponsored an all-school dance, "Una Noche En Mexico", to raise funds to bring two Spanish girls from Hermosillo to the California-Arizona Girls' League Convention. They also sponsored a successful assembly and gave time and effort towards seeing that Spanish-Americans were X-rayed by the Mobile Health units.

A. Gomez, Acosta. Third Row: Villa, Ledon, Romero, Dora Melendez, Lyles, Huerta, Flores, Rodriguez, Cervantes. Fourth Row: Maldonado, Arbizu, Amavista, Ortega, Ramirez, Baca, Ponce, Luna, Sandoval, Godinez, Torres. Fifth Row: Avila, Gomez, Sterling, Torres, Mrs. Cannell, Rodriguez, Vivaverde, Juarez, Cota, Mr. White, Vera Nunez, Perez.

Hi-Y Club • Bowling Belles • Girls' Letter Club

B-Sharp Club

CIRCUMSTANCES HAVE made cosmopolites of us all. The world is all about us, not way over there . . . Europe's centers are only a day's travel from us, and we are in constant communication with all points of the globe. So it is that our Cosmopolitan Club has no dearth of interest in its year's program. Members are invited to visit far places via movies, travel talks by natives of various countries or by people who have recently returned from countries such as France, India, Arabia, Scotland, and the like. Club sponsor is Mrs. Ethel V. Craig. Many Cosmopolites formed pen-pal connections with students in other lands.

YOU MUST BE sharp to keep up with the B-Sharp Music Club! These boys and girls get a zest out of every day living that somehow escapes those who neither sing nor play a musical instrument. Songfests, impromptu musical programs, and many planned entertainments keep these clubbers high in their praise of Sponsor Helen Donaldson and the group's officers. Their memories of fun at Phoenix Union will stay with them all their lives, aided by their continuing interest in music. Membership in this outstanding club is sure to grow, just as the Music Department has grown in size and popularity.

Hopkins, Torbett, B. Ballou, B. Greer, Johnson. Row 4: Osborne, Karampelas, Wolff, Brooks, Hicks, Gabay, Miller, Jones, Bigbie, Cicchinelli, and Gilbert.

Artistic Typists

Future Leaders

Placing A Premium On Scholarship

SCHOLARSHIP, often an overlooked item among high school students, gets its big play from 100 or more Phoenicians who have no allergies concerning homework or paying attention in the classroom. It takes a 14-grade-point average to achieve the goal, membership in Parnassus Club. And it takes perseverance to stay up there on that magic mountain of the gods. You will find that every member of Parnassus is justly proud.

MASQUE AND GAVEL Club finds its members among students of dramatics and speech. Serious as their work can be at times, these students know how to relax, too. They find pleasure in the world of make-believe; trouble is, sometimes you can't tell when some of them are acting and when they are behaving as usual! This group winds up an active year of speech making and drama with a banquet and awarding of "Oscars."

MASQUE AND GAVEL: "Oh, spare us, please spare us!" plead Betsy Anne Slack and Carolyn Miller as hard boiled villain Bob Adams stares unfeelingly off into space. Onlookers who are quite unconcerned about the "tragedy" are First Row: Schenck, Kope, Stiteler, Woodall, Adams, McGrath. Row 2: King, Mrs. Halleday, Estes, Preizner, Ausmus, Dean, Theodoropoulos, Jacquot, Chapman. Top Row: Gabay, Miller, Newell, Butts, Buechner.

ONE HUNDRED and one cheerleaders! The 101 Club, sparkplugs of Coyote pep at games and rallies, have inspired team and fans to the heights this year. Good sportsmanship goes along with their loud noises. The new flash card section was taken over by 101 . . . along with dozens of new members. Club sponsors are Mr.

Don Ellis for 101 and Miss Sally Young, Flash Card Group. President of 101 was Dave King; vice-president, Alina Gadis, and secretary-treasurer, Cherre Gilbert. Chairman of the Flashers was Lanny Kope. Even flashier card shows and louder cheering are in store for Coyote followers next season, 101 Club predicts.

They're Hep..With A Rep For Pep!

Radio Hams

Pre-Engineers

SINCE THE DAYS radio graduated from the earphone stage of crystal sets, Hams have experimented, traded radio parts and ideas until the organization is world-wide. Unusually active is our own group. Operating under the call sign W70XQ, they spend most of their spare time sending messages and receiving greetings from places far and near. In case of national emergency or local disaster, Radio Hams could fill in when all other types of communication are destroyed. Radio Club sponsor is Mr. Barney Shehane.

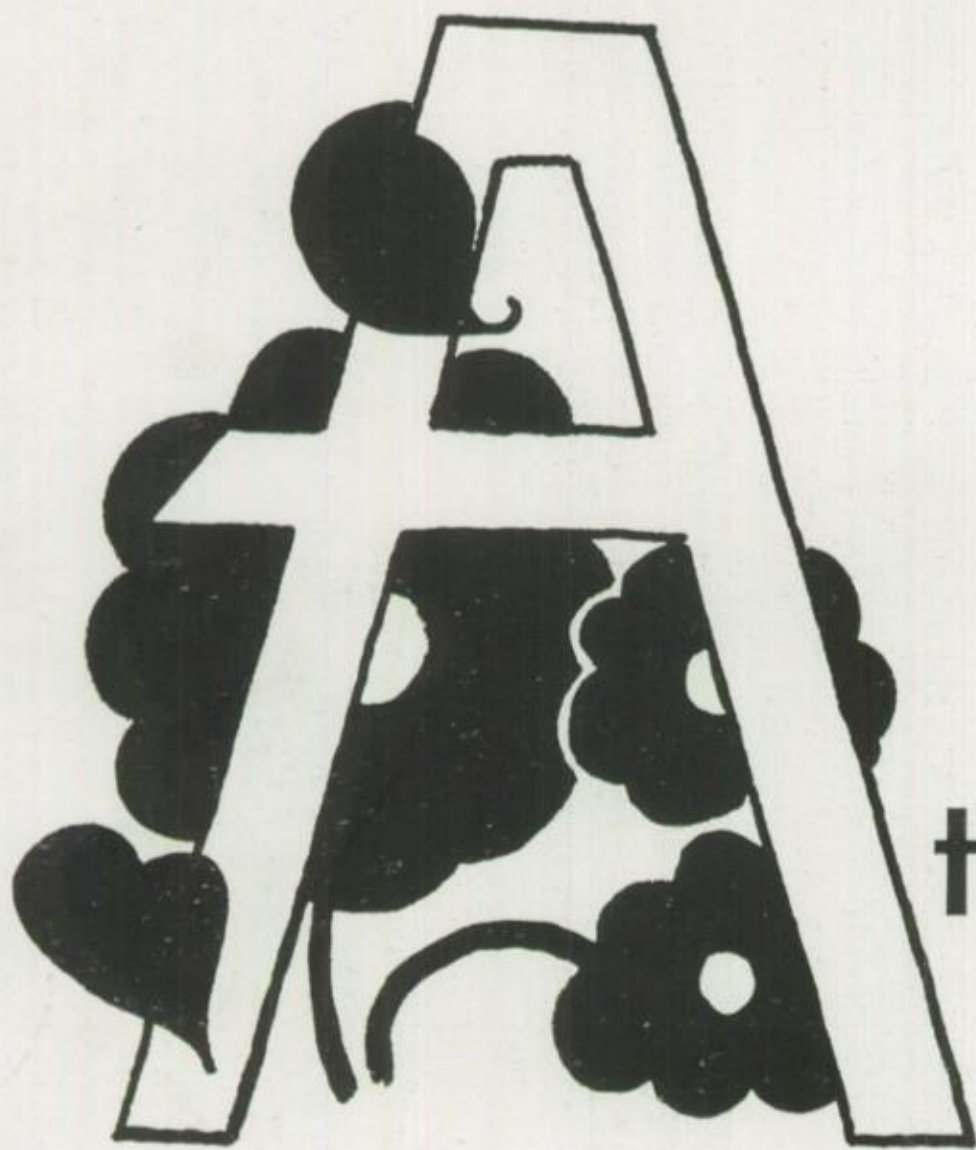

BEFORE ANYTHING can be built, it first must be planned. And before there are any planners, there must be found young people interested in careers as architects and engineers. That's where clubs such as the Pre-Engineering Club comes in . . . to develop candidates for these important fields. Activities of the Pre-Engineers include designing, discussion of modern trends in engineering, and field trips around the Valley. Mr. Don Coursen is sponsor of this enterprising group.

GRID ACTION: With Siegel (22) and Wynne (50) leaping high, the Coyotes try to foul up Tucson's try for extra point. Other Pack defenders are Christie (55) and Kirk (53). Top Picture: Checking football gear are Willie Kramer, team manager, and John Svob, equipment manager.

Football Takes The Spotlight

KING FOOTBALL strode manfully onto the 1950 scene at Phoenix Union, in spite of doleful prophecies that the Coyote Pack was green, and their future dark. John Q. Public and Johnny Black, coach, had different views on the subject, as the Pack took on Yuma's Criminals at Yuma, September 22. Under the fine running of Bob Jacobs, Al Ludlow, and Johnny Stein, the Phoenicians roared to a 27-0 decision. Amphitheater at Tucson suffered an even worse mauling from Black's rampaging Coyotes, 54-6, with both offense and defense working beautifully for the Blackmen.

WHIRLPOOL massage straightens out the kinks for Harry Walker, Coyote guard. Supervisor is Mr. Svob.

We Outplay Fremont, Los Angeles Champs, But Lose To Mesa

13, with little worry about the outcome. And out we came, 20 to 14 for Mesa!

THAT SEEMED to sober our high stepping Pack, which the next week met and conquered our cross-town rivals, St. Mary's Knights, 28-12. Jim Christie, 225 pounder, scooped up a free ball and raced, yes raced, most of the field's length for the TD that spelled the difference. Again Jim Black was great in his bootleg plays and passing.

LAS VEGAS' Wildcats, highly touted and rarin' to go, charged down upon the Coyotes at Montgomery Stadium, October 21, and crawled back, badly beaten, 40-0. Sparkling defensive play by Harry Walker, Siegel, Roe, Kirk, and Richard French stymied the Nevadans, who penetrated the Coyote 30-yard line only once. Offensive standouts were Ludlow, Jacobs, and Black.

JOHN FREMONT High School, Los Angeles champions for three years, invaded us October 6. We started as underdogs, but Quarterback Jim Black stunned the Californians with his passing, completing seven of eight tosses. Dick Siegel, Ludlow, Jacobs, Bob Roe, Nick Kondora, and George Kirk loomed as Coyote stars. Final score was 12 to 6. By now we were sure we had state champion material, and took on Mesa, October

OOPS! Bob Black, Coyote end, makes a swan dive after being hit by a Tucson Badger. Kirk (53) and Peter are other Coyotes in action. Below: Halfback Stein drags down Mustang Mitcham. Also in scene are Black (45), Jacobs (40) and Kirk (53).

AGAIN ON THE victory trail, the Coyotes faced an underdog Tucson Badger team that had been booted about by just everybody. We organized a Dad's Night, and confident of another victory watched . . . then Tucson roared back and dumped Phoenix 39-0! Next came Bakersfield, at the California city. The trip and the tough Drillers were more than the plucky Phoenicians could match, the final score being 38-13 for the Drillers. But we saw a real game first half, the Coyotes matching the beefier foe on even terms. West High's Thunderbirds almost upset the dope bucket for Don Coyote, November 17, but at length Quarterback Jim Black got his passes to clicking and the Coyotes eked out a 19-13 victory. Jacobs and Bob Black were targets for Jim's aeriels.

Football

DICK SIEGEL, shown outracing opponents, was easily the star of the Badger-Coyote game. At halftime a memorial program to his father, the late Coach Francis Siegel, was conducted and an annual trophy set up. The Siegel Trophy, given by Dr. Trevor Browne, will go each year to the winner of the Phoenix-Tucson game.

THAT TURKEY GAME had the whole town on its ear. For a time it looked like a Coyote victory, but the Mustangs fought gamely to the final gun and a 20-20 tie. Standouts were Jacobs for Phoenix Union and Mitcham for North High. Al Ludlow did a fine running attack for the locals.

FINAL SCORE FOR the season stood at 6 won, 3 lost, and 1 tied, a mighty good record for what began as a "green" squad.

JUNIOR VARSITY: Coaches Wendell Patterson and Bob Ruman turned out a snappy Junior Varsity this year, although their won 4, lost 6 record might indicate a mediocre season. Games were close, tough, and the competition keen. Top Row—Velasquez, Calderone, Lopez, Adkinson, Kregg, Hamby, Wilkerson, Best, Ramirez. Row 2—Milum,

Sweating It Out With Coach Black

HOW DOES a coach react at a football game? In this series, by Reuben Limas of The Arizona Republic, Coach Johnny Black watches the revoltin' developments that brought him to his feet in disagreement with the referee or perhaps his quarterback.

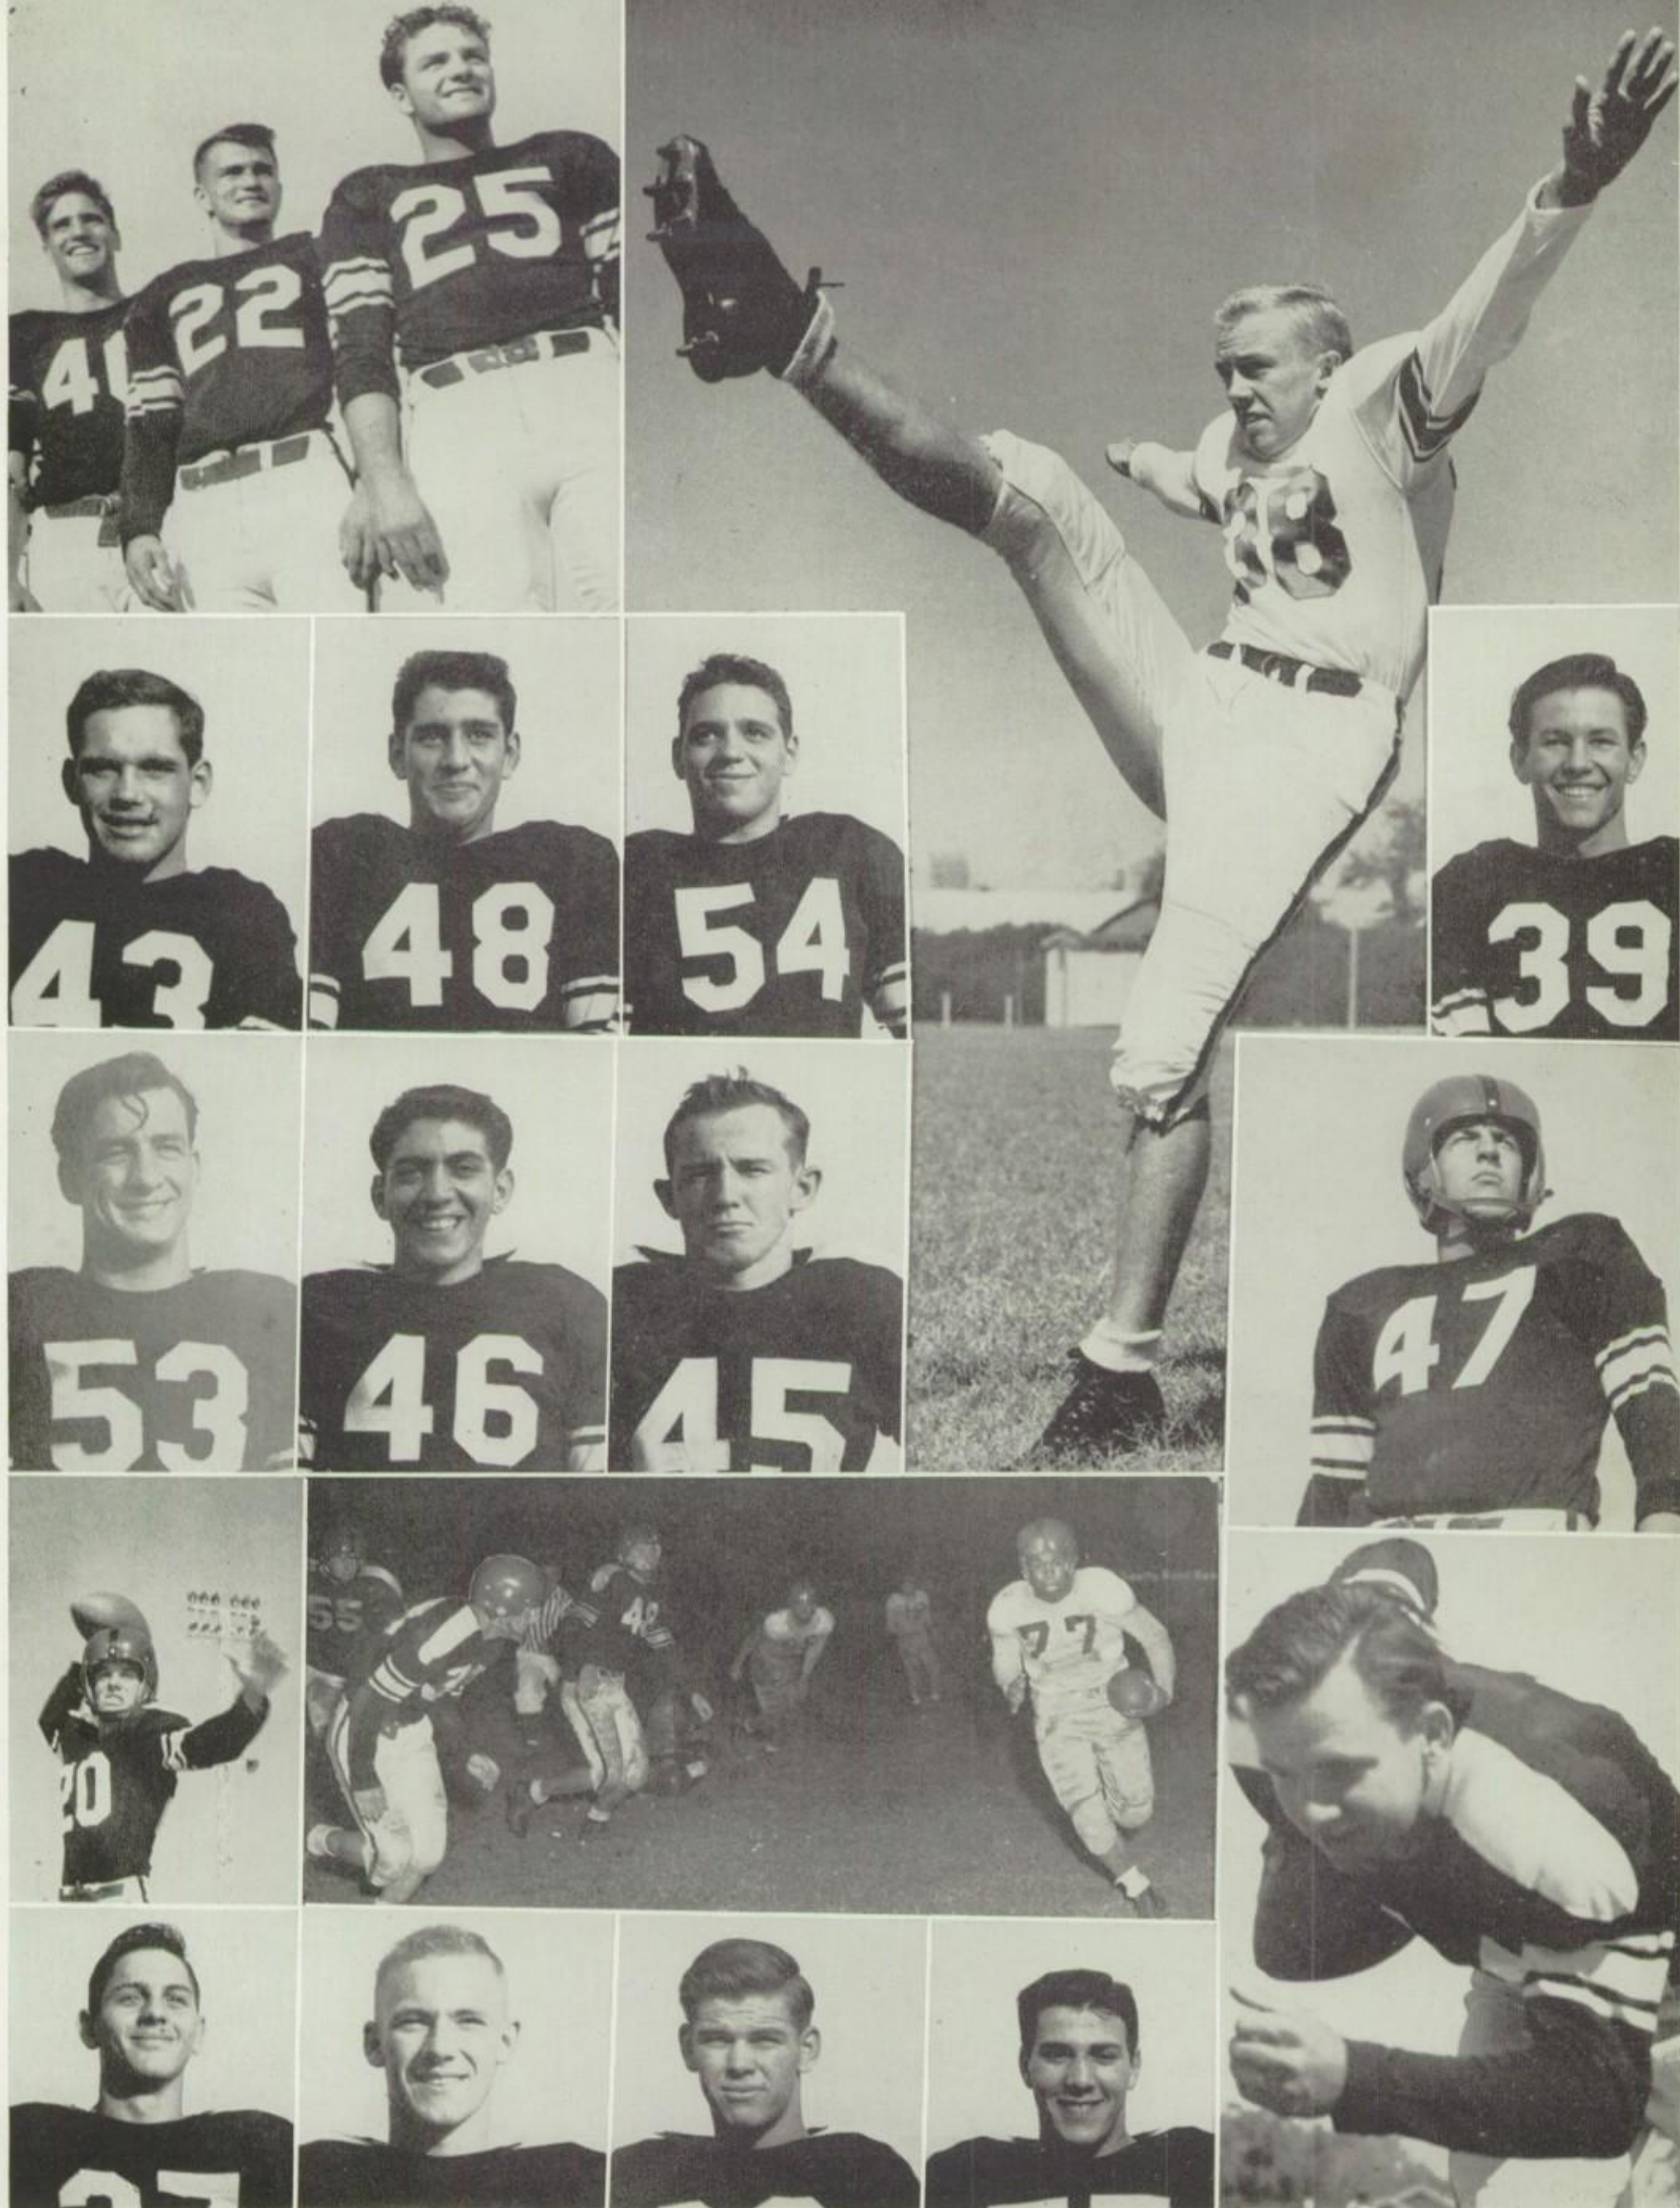

HERE, banked on one side by Line Coach Marsh and on the other by former Coyote grid star Art Van Haren, he watches the plays get rougher and the Mesa Jackrabbits tougher.

COYOTES Stein and Wynne are in foreground as coaches confer . . . and the Coyotes take a five yard loss.

THAT DOES IT! Coach Marsh emotes consternation, Van Haren dismay, and Coach Black loud and volatile bitterness as another reverse sets the Pack on its haunches and the foe gets the ball. Oh, for the life of a football mentor! Final score, Coyotes 14, Mesa 20.

Coyote Stalwarts:

TEAMWORK gave Coach Bob Ruman's 1950-51 Coyotes one of the best basketball records (18-2) since 1941. The honors usually were scattered among all the players after each victory. They were state Class A champions as well as Phoenix city leaders. Mesa's 1950 champions, however, snatched victory in the Class A tournament at Tempe, the Coyotes taking second honors.

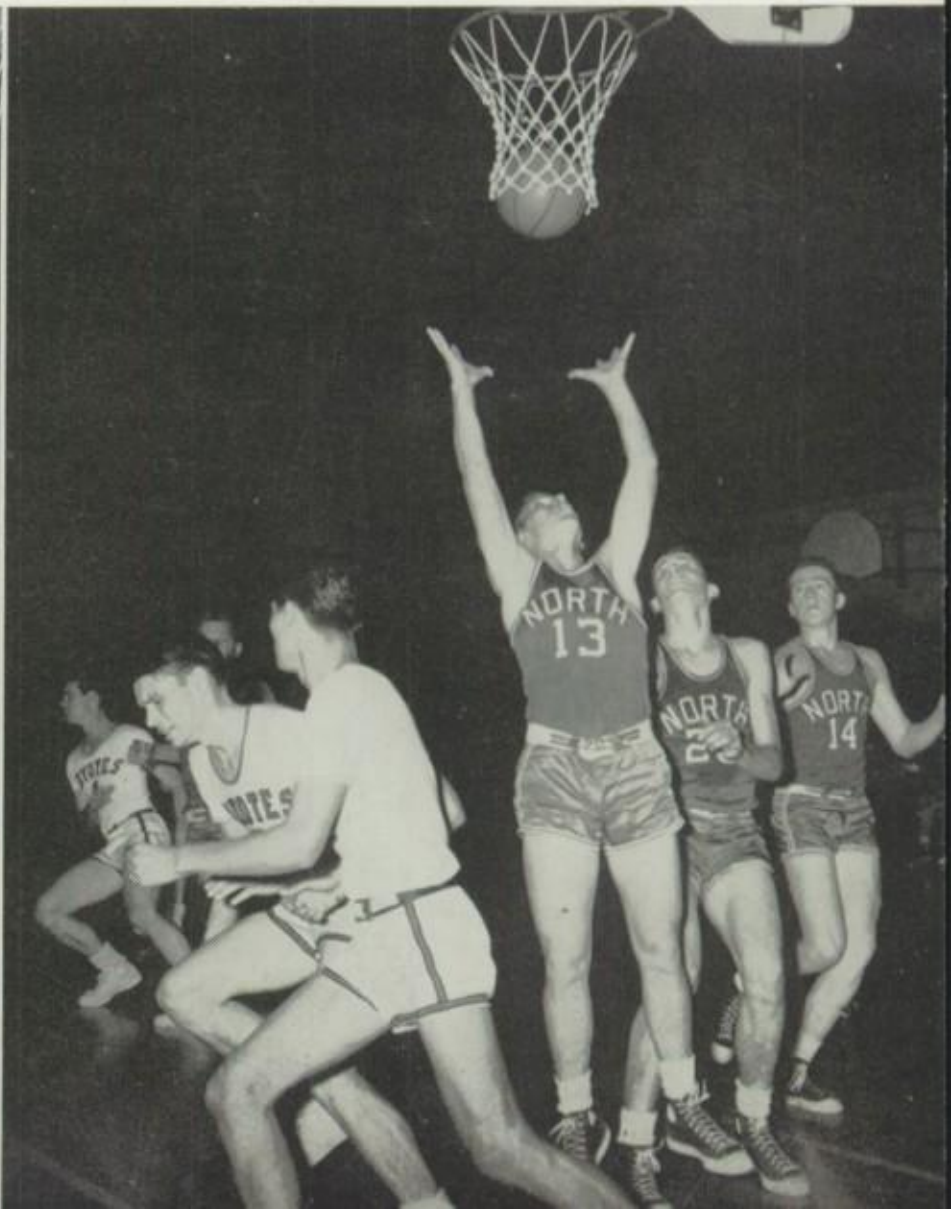

OUTSTANDING were Bob Burris and Charles Holland, guards; Louis Grijalva and Dick Daugherty, forwards, and Dave Milner, center. Burris and Grijalva won first string places on both Class A and City honor teams, and Burris made the All-Tournament first team.

THE COYOTES opened their season with a 48-33 win over Yuma's Criminals, with Grijalva and Burris showing the sparkle that was to spotlight the Pack all season. Glendale next fell 62-37 at Glendale and 72-30 on the Phoenix court.

UP, UP THEY GO after the ball. Coyote Chad Campbell (4) seems to be contesting North High's claim. Other Coyotes in the play are Burris and Lipson. Mustang's Prock and Stiteler are shown.

BLOCK THAT SHOT! But Coyotes Holland (9) and Burris (6) were too late, the ball sailing for the mesh in the Mustang-Coyote game. Right: Too late can apply to opponents, too. Ball is just coming through the net as Grijalva, Daugherty, and Campbell pull away.

We Win, Lose In Mesa Tilts

OOTCH! Playing bumpy-daisy with Daugherty is North High's Bob Melton.

MESA'S JACKRABBITS were the jinx, toppling the Pack 44-35 at Phoenix, but at Mesa the Coyotes got sweet revenge, trouncing the Rabbits 50-36 in a rough game that featured some slick ball swiping by Burris and Grijalva. The fighting West High Thunderbirds gave the Pack a scare on the Phoenix Union court, leading most of the way. But they faded under a rally led by Burris and the final score was 54-46. The return game at West saw a repetition and the Coyotes won 46-39.

IN A PRE-CHRISTMAS tilt, the Coyotes and North High Mustangs staged a rough football-type game, the Pack winning (57-44) by several touchdowns. Holland led the Pack with 16 markers. Phoenix Tech was next to feel the Coyote bite, succumbing 48-36, and in the second meeting, 54-44. Prescott, led by big Jim Savoini, hit 84 per cent of their shots in the first half of our game here, but speedy Dick Daugherty and Grijalva, with 24 and 19 points pulled the game from the fire, 70-61.

GO AFTER that ball, Coach Ruman tells Stein, who is ready to enter the game as a replacement.

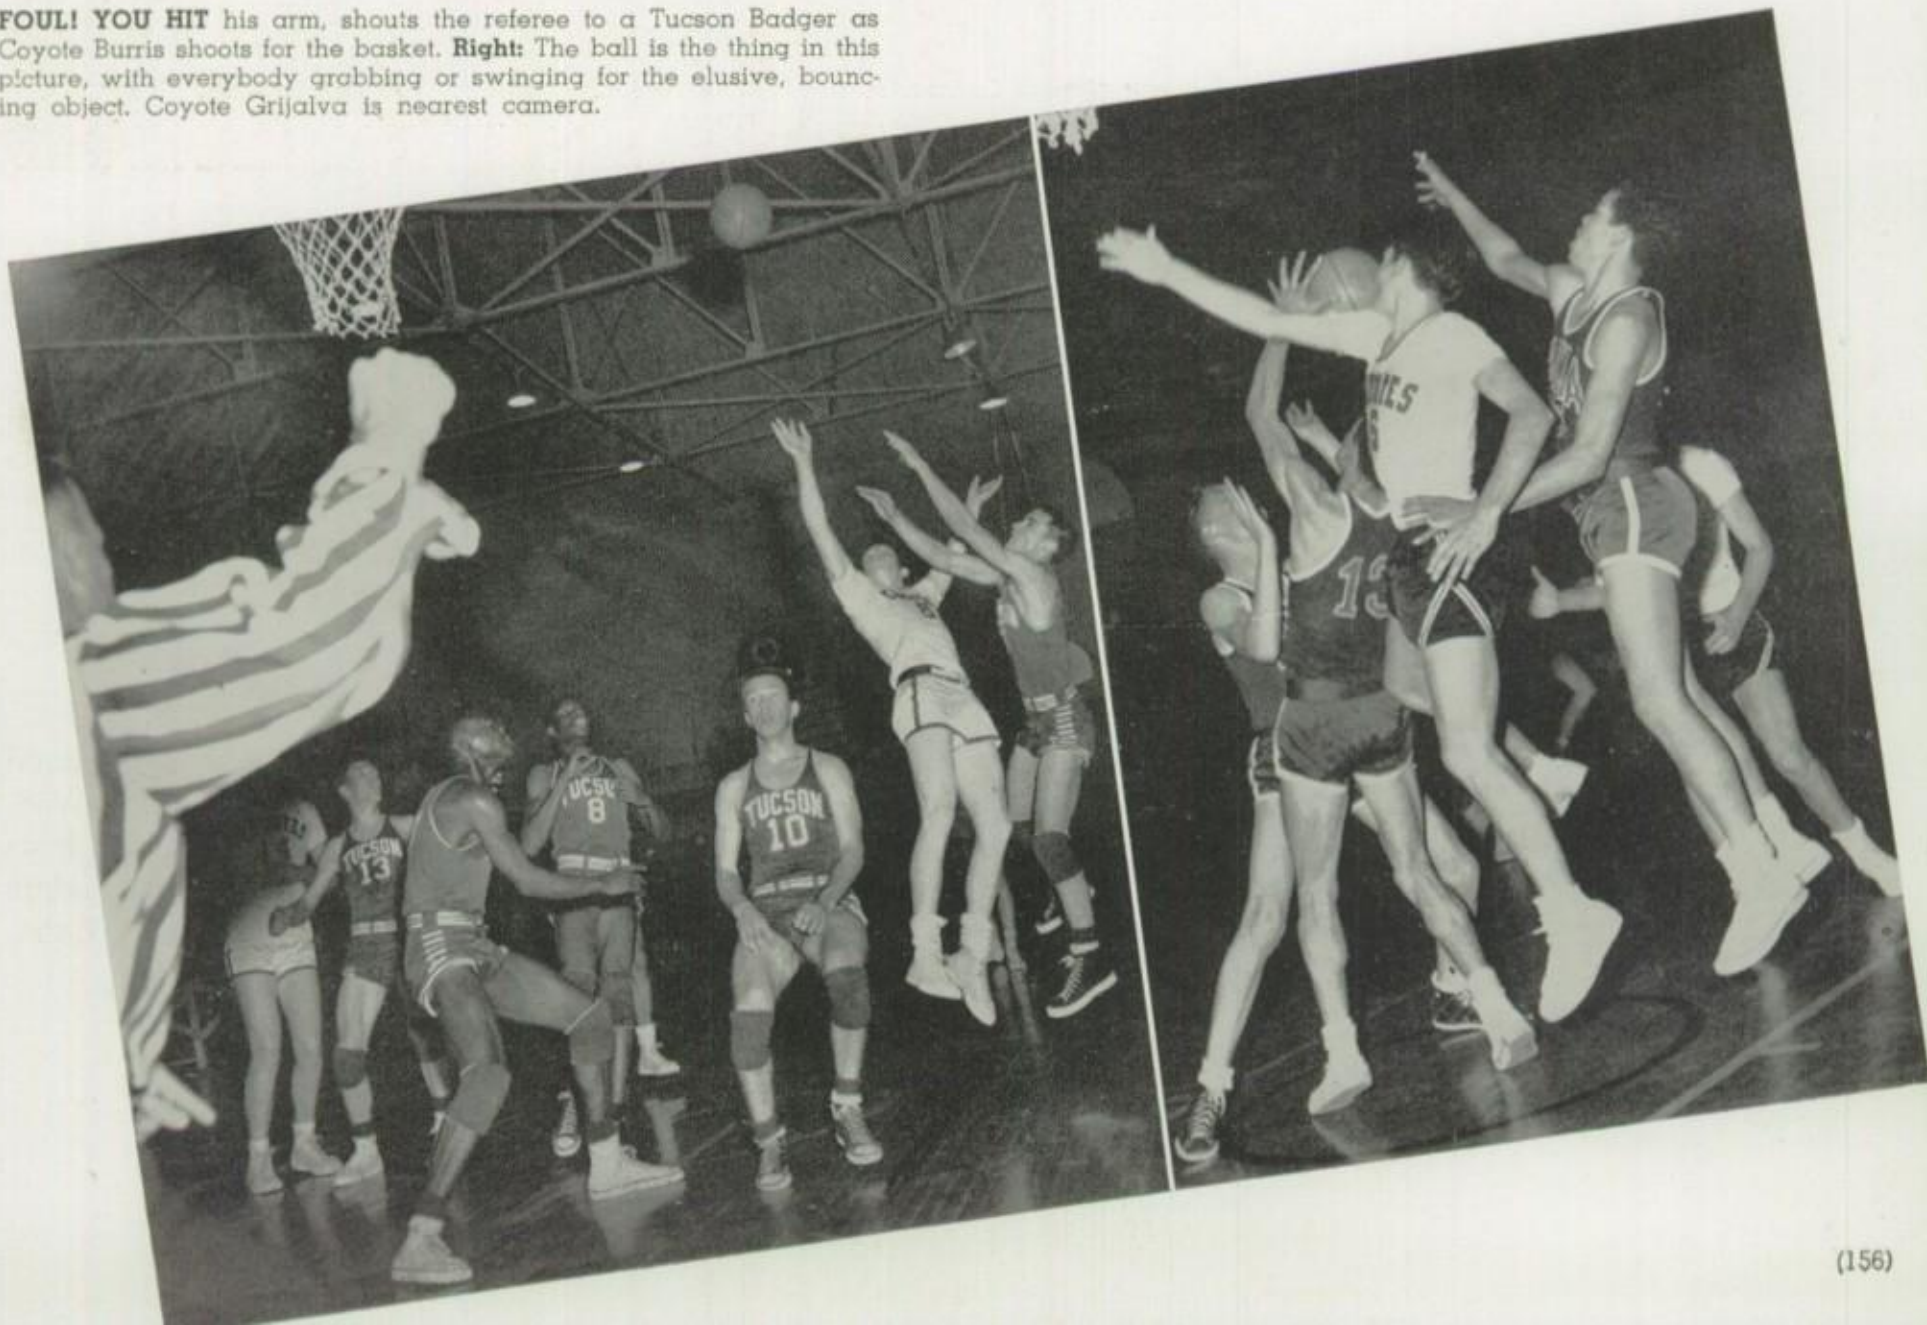

We Finally Beat Those Badgers

CARVER'S MONARCHS held the Pack for two quarters, but wilted finally to lose, 56-39, under the attack led by Grijalva and Holland. Then came the second meeting with Yuma, which lost again 55-38. The Pack then took on Tucson's Badgers at Tucson, winning 65-59, the first Phoenix Union team to win on the Old Pueblo floor since 1941. Art Tarazon, rangy 6'5" center, saved the game, dumping in 10 points in the final moments of play.

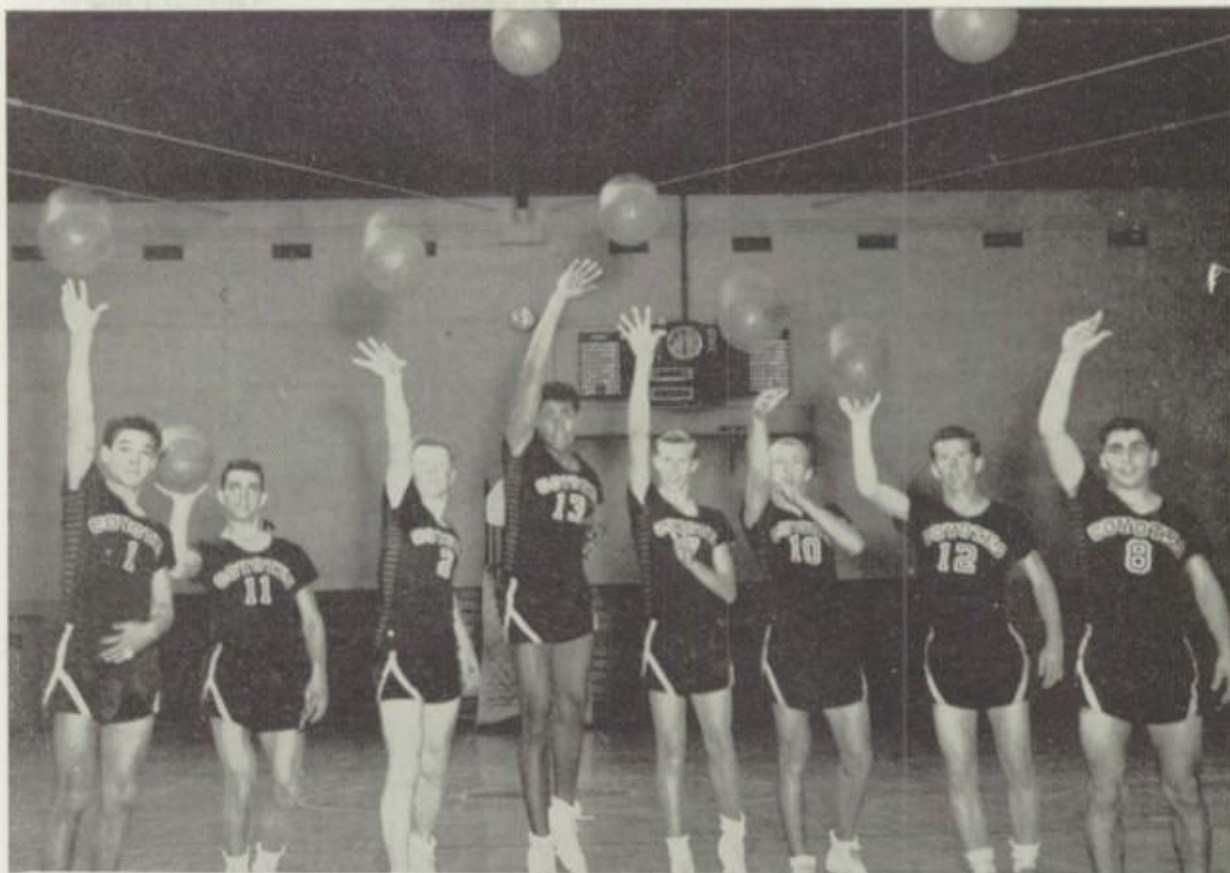

LOWLY ST. MARY'S, beaten by just about everybody, pulled a surprise on the Pack, worked a baffling diamond-zone defense, and won the game 49-27. The chastened Coyotes then went to Prescott, found themselves once more and won 57-37. Another trip to Tucson, this time to play Amphitheater, gave us a lopsided 75-55 win and a Coyote scoring record. Milner dumped in 27 points. Final season game was with North High, the Coyotes winning 54-49, after a desperate rally, with Grijalva scoring 14 points in the final moments to ice the game. This event was televised.

Basketball

Win or Lose, Coyotes Were Game

IN THE FIRST ROUND of the State Tournament, the Coyotes slipped past the game but outclassed Thunderbirds of West High 45-37. Their big effort came against Tucson, when the lead changed sides several times, the contest finally going to an overtime with the teams tied at 61-67. Burris led the Pack to victory, 70-65. In the final against Mesa, the fighting Pack couldn't match the height of Darrell Harper and John Allen, and wound up on the short end of a 48-41 score. But win or lose, many a fan labeled this year's Coyote Pack the best hoop club they'd seen in action in more than a decade.

DURING THE SEASON the Coyotes scored 1253 points to their opponents' 1010, averaging 54.5 points per game to foes' 43.9. Grijalva led the Pack in points scored with a game average of 12.6.

WITH A RECORD of 16-4, the Coyote Pups gained honors as well as experience. Guided by Coach Wendell Patterson, the youngsters met flashy teams from Valley schools and showed varsity caliber. Leaders included Art Tarazon, Willard Knobley, Richard Rudd, Evans Heywood, and Armando Urias.

Coyote Cindermen

Our Track Pack Had Stamina

CARSON'S COYOTES then trekked to Mesa for a quadrangular meet involving North High, Mesa, and Tucson. The Coyote thinlies, not up to season form, nabbed third place behind North High and Tucson. Arizona State's talented Frosh tested the Pack tracksters next, barely eking out a win, $58\frac{1}{3}$ to $54\frac{2}{3}$. Hall took victories in both 100 and 220 yard dashes. Chambers pole vaulted 12 ft. $5\frac{1}{2}$ in., to tie the state record.

THE PACK THEN met Carver and West High in an exciting meet, the Coyotes edging out Carver $61\frac{1}{5}$ to $58\frac{1}{5}$. Carver's half mile relay beat the fast forming Coyote relay team in the meet's most exciting race. Chambers vaulted 12 ft. 6 in. to shatter all standing state and school records.

Chambers, Hall, Fuller Scintillated

THE VISITING COMPTON, Calif., High School thinlies took, as expected, a 53 to 43 victory here over the Coyotes in a meet also including North High. But the winner in the Long Beach Relays High School division ate the dust of Coach Carson's crack relay team in a fast 1:34 time. Fuller, termed a "picture runner" defeated Compton's Carter, favored man in this run, in 2:01. Then came the second annual Valley Meet at Glendale which saw Phoenix Union and North High battling for the championship. The meet included all valley high school track men, but the Coyotes came home with the long end of a 24 to 21 victory, Hall grabbing both dashes in fast time.

IN THE ANNUAL city meet at Montgomery Stadium, the Mustangs walked away with a close victory 47 11/15 to 45 7/10. Chambers vaulted 12 ft. 7 1/4 in. to soar higher than any other Arizona high school athlete. Hall grabbed first place honors in both dash events. The Arizona Relays at Goodwin Stadium in Tempe attracted more than 400 Arizona high school trackmen. Coyotes Chambers and Hall helped land the Pack in second place behind speedy North High. Chambers broke his own record in the pole vault, 12 ft. 9 in. The Coyotes took victories in the 440 yard relay and the one mile relay, only to be edged out for the team championship 46 3/5 to 40.

SWISH! Centerfielder Thompson whiffs one in the game with Yuma. Note ball in Yuma catcher's glove. Coyotes won 3-2.

What We Needed... Was Better Batters

COACH MARTIN (Pug) Marich's horsehide nine had bad luck combined with green boys to bring in a dejected season. The Pack lost out in several "any-team-could-win" games to add to their average season play. They opened with a 1-0 loss to Phoenix Tech. Freshman Paul Mazon twirled a nifty two hitter although Lefty Beraducci of Tech chucked one hit ball to beat him. The Pack then trekked to the Old Pueblo the following afternoon to clash with the rugged Tucson Badgers. Jim Brundage, veteran Coyote moundstay, hurled fine ball, but behind seven Coyote errors lost 7-1.

LEFTY JIM BURRIS next hurled five hit ball while his teammates were jumping on West's Shun for 14 hits, including John Stein's four-master, for a 12-4 victory. The Pack then met the Yuma Criminal nine for a double header. Mazon held the Criminals in check with a nice two-hitter, winning 3-2 in the first game. In the second game Mazon relieved Jim Burris in the fourth inning allowing only 1 hit and taking a 5-1 win.

Coach Marich and his proteges then played host to the Glendale Cards and lost 5-4. Gary Smith pounded out a four bagger for the Coyote cause.

SLIDE FOR HOME! Coyote Thompson gets there, too, (Upper Left) while Kemp waits for the long toss. Upper Right: Umpire Duzenburg and Coach Marich confer while Coyotes, DeWill, Thompson, Farmer, Smith, Glover, Brundage, Schmelzer, Caldwell, Holland, Pierson, Burris,

After The Gloom Comes Sunshine

THEN CAME THOSE tough North High Hosses with their powerhouse battery. The Northsiders made short work of the green Pack, going home with a 9-0 victory. In a return game with the Thunderbirds the Coyotes won, 7-6, behind the four-hit hurling of Brundage. They then took on Mesa for a game with the usually strong Rabbits. Behind Bill Thompson's four bagger the Pack went on to win 7-5. The following week the Marichmen traveled to the Old Pueblo to meet the Amphitheater nine, losing 13-12. A seven-run lead by the Coyotes blew away with the wind as the Panthers hopped on the Coyotes for seven runs and the lead.

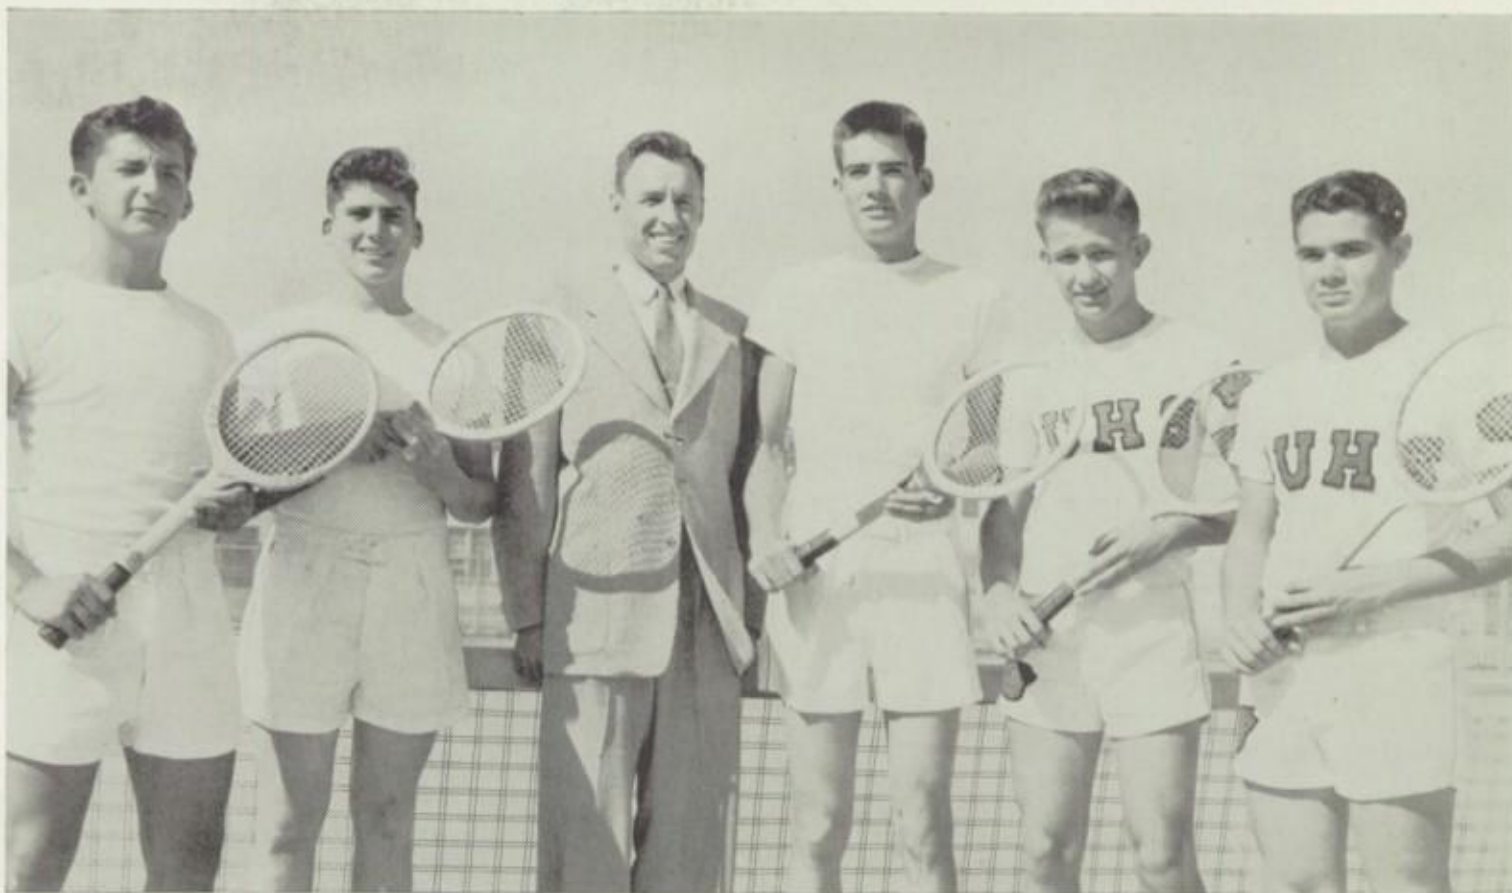

PHIL KEMP HIT a round tripper to tie the score in the Coyote half of the last inning, only to have the Panthers come back with a run in their half of the inning to win. Old Man Bad Luck was still hounding us. On paper we could win, but the breaks dictated "no."

A RETURN MATCH with the Cardinals was revenge for the baseballers as they hopped on Glendale's Ray Sorenson for three homers, hit by Gary Smith, Kemp, and Stein. Lefty Burris scattered 12 Red Bird hits. Mesa gained revenge on the once victorious Coyotes in the next game winning, 6-2. In the always good game with St. Mary's, the Knights' Nelson hurled a nifty two-hitter at the usually hitting Coyote team and batted his team to an 8-4 win. A trip to the Old Pueblo gave our lads a double headache. We lost 7-3 to Tucson High after it appeared we had the game all sewed up. And Amphi's surprising baseballers tossed us to an 9-5 loss.

THE SEASON was mediocre, to say the least, but through the gloom clouds come shafts of sunshine. Next year we have some stellar vets returning: Frosh Mazon, Soph Phillips, and Juniors Jim Burris, Thompson, Kemp, Stein, Holland, Schmelzer. It'll be a different story!

WINNING 75 PER CENT of their matches, Coach Jordan's tennis club had a fine season. Mesa, Tucson, North High, and Judson School were the toughest contenders. Bob Sayers was No. 1 on the ladder, with Charles North No. 2 until he joined the navy. Joe Contreras stepped up to North's spot, with Gene Deacon playing at No. 4. Milton Liebhaber and David Tardiff occupied No. 5 position. Freshmen Warren Evans and Billy Patterson subbed at No. 5. The Junior Varsity, all frosh, was defeated only by North High and Judson.

BIG BOLD BOWLERS from Phoenix Union made a name for themselves nationally this year. Four members of the Boys' Bowling Club were awarded trophies for placing in the National Bowling Tournament sponsored by the American Junior Bowling Congress. They are Edward Andrews, Roy Dugan, Bill Neal, and Bob Adams. They placed eighth in a field of over 2000, a remarkable record, Club Sponsor John Ewart asserts. Bowling is a fairly new activity among students here, but one that will increase with each year.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB—Here we see a composite of all the Coyote athletic headliners. They are Top Row: Liebhaber, Peterson, Garner, Kemp, B. Burris, Jacobs, Grijalva, Daugherty, Mattingly, Kempson, H. Girl Athletes Are Also Good Sports

WHOLESOME ENTERTAINMENT and sports are synonymous. Sports not only is a source of entertainment, it spurs competition and sportsmanship. From the girl's viewpoint volleyball, softball, badminton, basketball, and other individual sports offered in the year's program, give her the chance to participate, to develop skills, and promote good health. This year the All-School Tournament was cancelled because of the overflowing program planned for the gym classes.

ATHLETIC CLUBS sponsor many enjoyable projects. These clubs are Girls' Athletic Association, Girls' Letter Club, Badminton, and Tennis clubs. GAA was hostess to Phoenix high schools for annual Play Day. The Girls' Letter Club co-sponsored the Frontier Dance while the other clubs planned parties and tournaments in competition for honors. Our physical education instructors and personal friends are Mrs. Ruth McNeill, Misses Elizabeth Blake, Berneil Maxey, and Sally Young.

There's Beauty In Arizona . . .

WAY OUT WEST, where the sun shines a little brighter, where smiles are a lot broader, and the desert speaks only of peace and contentment — that's where we live! Poets tell us to consult Nature when we are troubled. Look to the stars; find comfort in the mountains, the flowers, and the blue skies. We recognize that Evil threatens; but we also know that Good will prevail and that all will be well with us. Nature is at her best in our Arizona homeland. Take pleasure in the color pages that follow, and comfort in the sure knowledge that Happiness is here . . . to stay.

PAPER-BAG BUSH or BLADDER SAGE

Salazaria mexicana

Mint Family

Like tiny inflated paper bags, the fruit of Salazaria are papery pods enclosing its nut-like seeds. This is a wiry shrub with inconspicuous leaves and small purple and white flowers. The plant is most showy and attractive as bladder-like bags take on tints. Reported to furnish forage throughout year in dry sections.

SAND VERBENA

Abronia

Four-o'clock Family

Abronia is that member of the Four-o'clock family which loves most to live in the sand. It is that rose-purple carpet which so magnificently covers sand dunes and sandy bottom lands. This scene was taken below Gillespie Dam last March.

BLUE PENTSTEMON Pentstemon pachyphyllus
Figwort Family

Waving stands of blue Pentstemon among the red-barked Ponderosa Pines is a sight to behold. These stalks were photographed along the East Rim Drive at Grand Canyon, June 19.

SEGO LILY—WHITE MARIPOSA Calochortus ambiguus
Lily Family

This variety is nearly the same as Calochortus nuttallii, the State Flower of Utah. The large bulb which develops several inches below the earth's surface is edible. A beautiful flower!

LINEAR-LEAVED
GOLDENBUSH
Aplopappus linearifolius
Sunflower Family

A round bushy shrub two to three feet high. Very showy because of its numerous well-shaped flowers. Found on hillsides 3,000 to 6,000 ft. Low altitude blossoming time is April and May, higher altitudes, Aug. to Nov.

PINK LUPINE Lupinus arizonicus
Pea Family

The Arizona Lupine likes sandy washes and is found in altitudes below 3,000 ft. through southern Arizona, California, Sonora and Baja California. Found near Parker, Arizona.

BEARDTONGUE Pentstemon palmeri
Figwort Family

This is the prettiest of all Arizona Pentstemons and grows in profusion along U. S. 89-A on slopes of Mingus Mountains, elevation 5,600 feet. Photograph was taken June 2, 1949.

FOUR-O'CLOCK
Mirabilis multiflora
Four-o'clock Family

A most handsome and showy plant with its multitude of large magenta-purplish blossoms and dark green foliage. Grows almost throughout the State at elevations 2,000 to 6,500 ft. Flowers open mid-afternoon when shaded and close the following day when sun becomes bright.

DEVILSCLAW or ELEPHANT TUSK

Martynia arenaria
Unicornplant Family

The young green pods of this plant have been eaten as a vegetable. The matured pods become woody with two curved pronged tusk-like appendages which become coal black and tough. Much of the black in Indian baskets is made from these shredded tusks. Indian children love the nut-like seeds which are found in the matured pods. The russet yellow, red-spotted flowers have a sweet odor, keep in water.

ARIZONA THISTLE

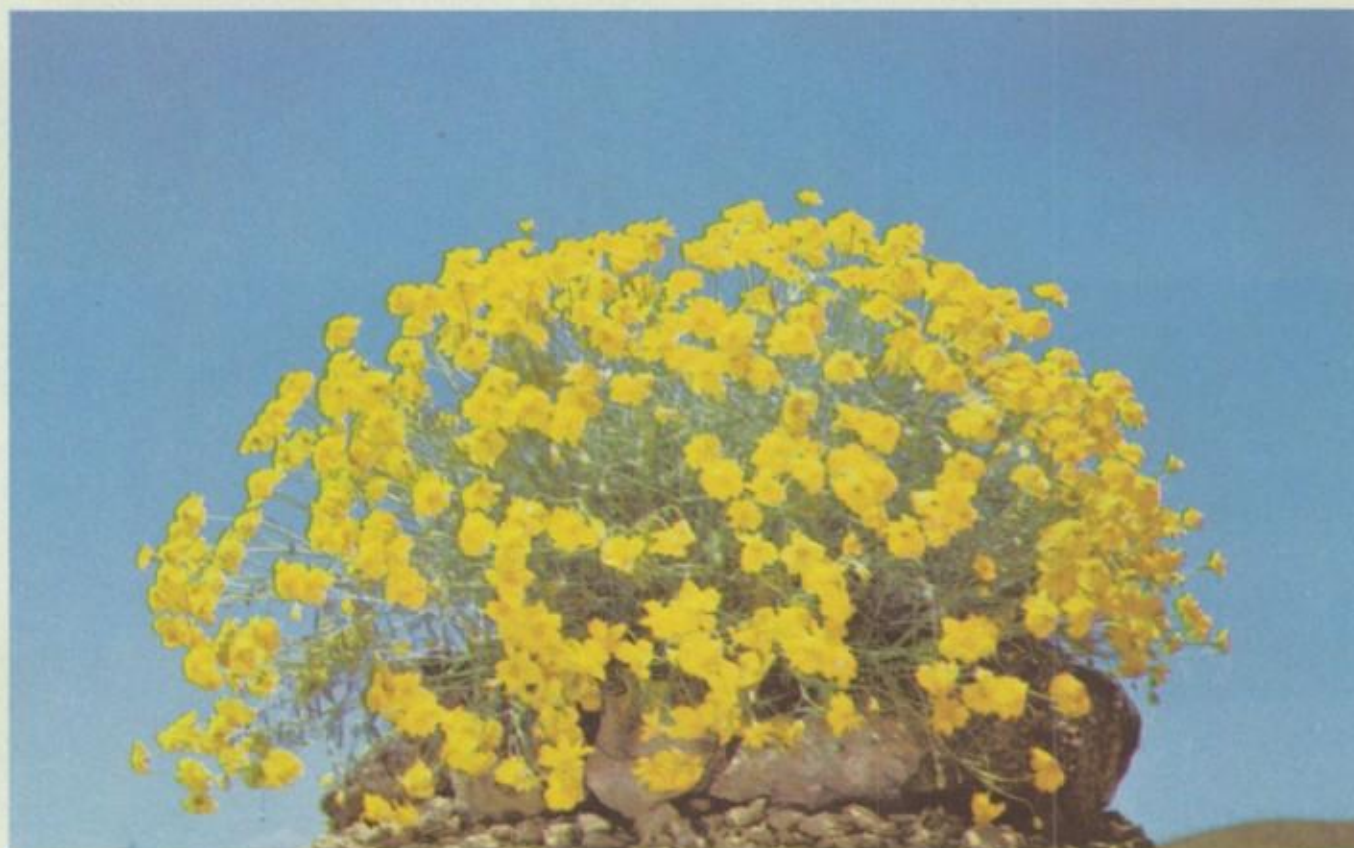

Cirsium arizonicum
Sunflower Family

Especially striking against the azure of an Arizona sky. The flowers of Arizonicum are narrower and of a brighter red than most thistles. The young plants are soft and juicy and a delicacy for horses in spite of the spines. Two to four feet high, it ranges from 3,000 to 7,000 ft. and blossoms through May to October.

PAPER FLOWER

Psilostrophe cooperi
Sunflower Family

Called "paper flower" because of its papery petals when dry. It is a beautiful rounded bush from 12 to 18 inches high and unusually showy. It has a long blooming season. Flowers last long. The matured petals are like small pieces of paper. It has a large range throughout the Southwest at elevations between 2,000 to 5,000 feet.

DESERT WILLOW

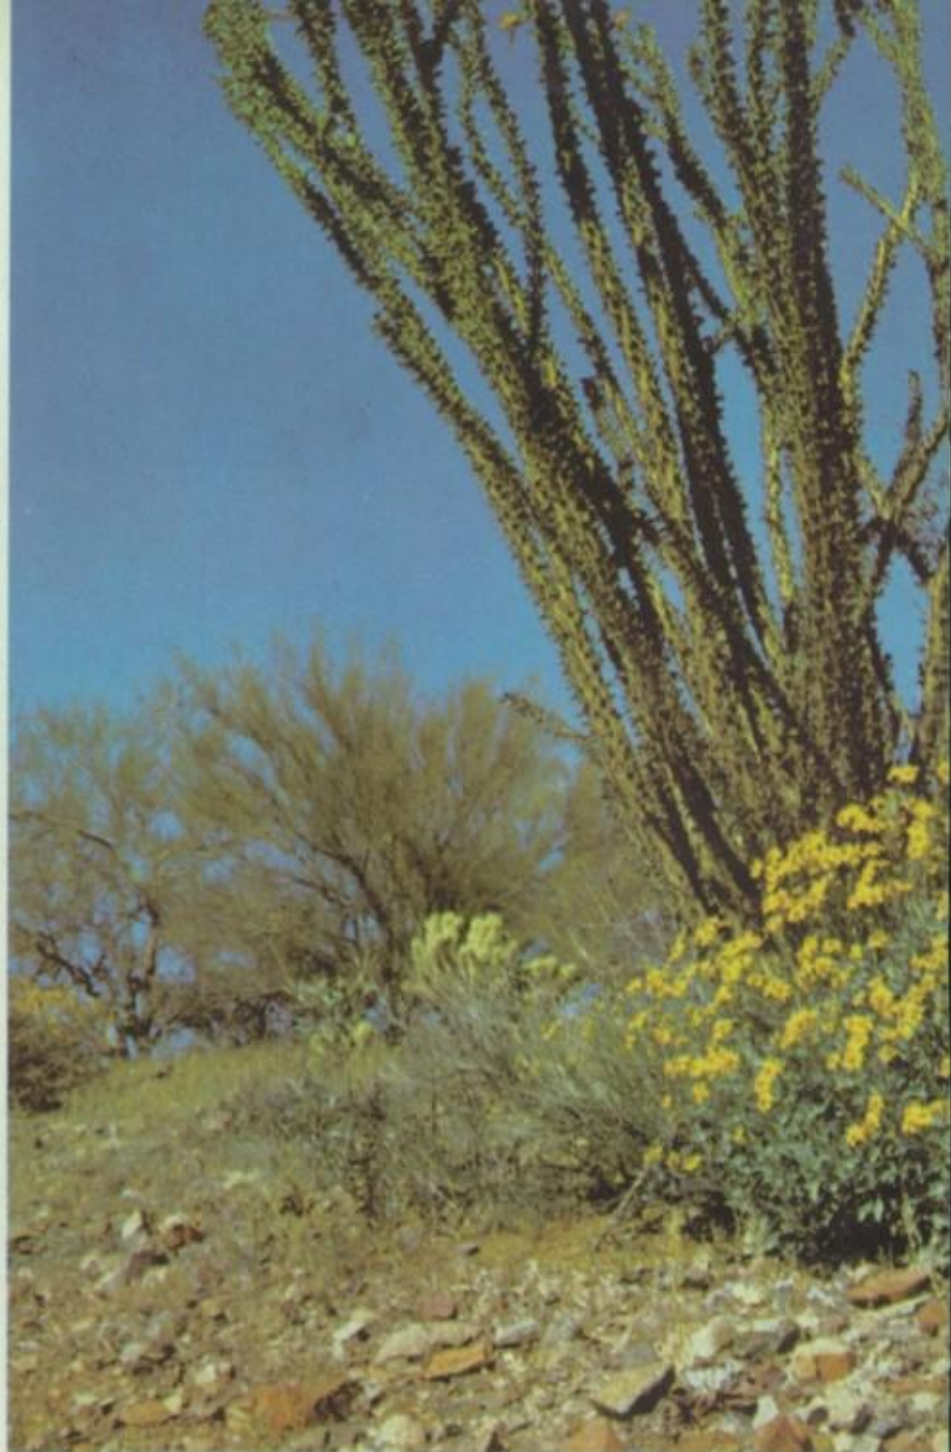

Chilopsis linearis
Bignonia Family

Desert Willows are large shrubs or loosely branched trees often fifteen to twenty feet tall. Usually found in desert washes and ravines below 5,000 ft. Especially beautiful when in bloom and often cultivated for ornamental purposes. The flowers have a violet scent and continue to bloom over a long period of time if it has rained.

OCOTILLO
Fouquieria splendens
 Fouquieria or Candlewood Family

Ocotillo is considered the most colorful and picturesque shrub of the desert. Its long spiny stems topped with panicles of tubular red flowers against the azure of the desert sky is a sight never to be forgotten. Even when not in bloom, its long slender waving branches lend gracefulness to the landscape. Cuttings from this plant root rapidly.

BRITTLE BUSH Opuntia
elaeagnifolia

So named because of the brittleness of the stems and because of its incense value. The resin crystals which exude from its stems were burned as incense by the early Padres in churches of Baja

WILD FLAX Linum lewisii
 Flax Family

Wild Flax has a handsome little flower waving on a slender wiry stem. Occasionally the flowers are nearly white and the petals fall very easily. They are found generally at elevations 2,000 to 9,500 feet.

BLUE LUPINE Lupinus sparsiflorus
 Pea Family

This particular specie of Lupine is a common border flower along the highways of southern Arizona, Nevada, Sonora, California and Baja California. It mainly likes sandy places 4,500 feet or lower.

DESERT LILY Maritima

A true character of the isolated and desert-land and is therefore not actively rare and liv

SO Encelia farinosa
family

California. It can be identified from other desert shrubs by its large grayish-green leaves. It is a beautiful rounded bush from two to three feet tall and is one of season's earliest bloomers.

GOLDENROD

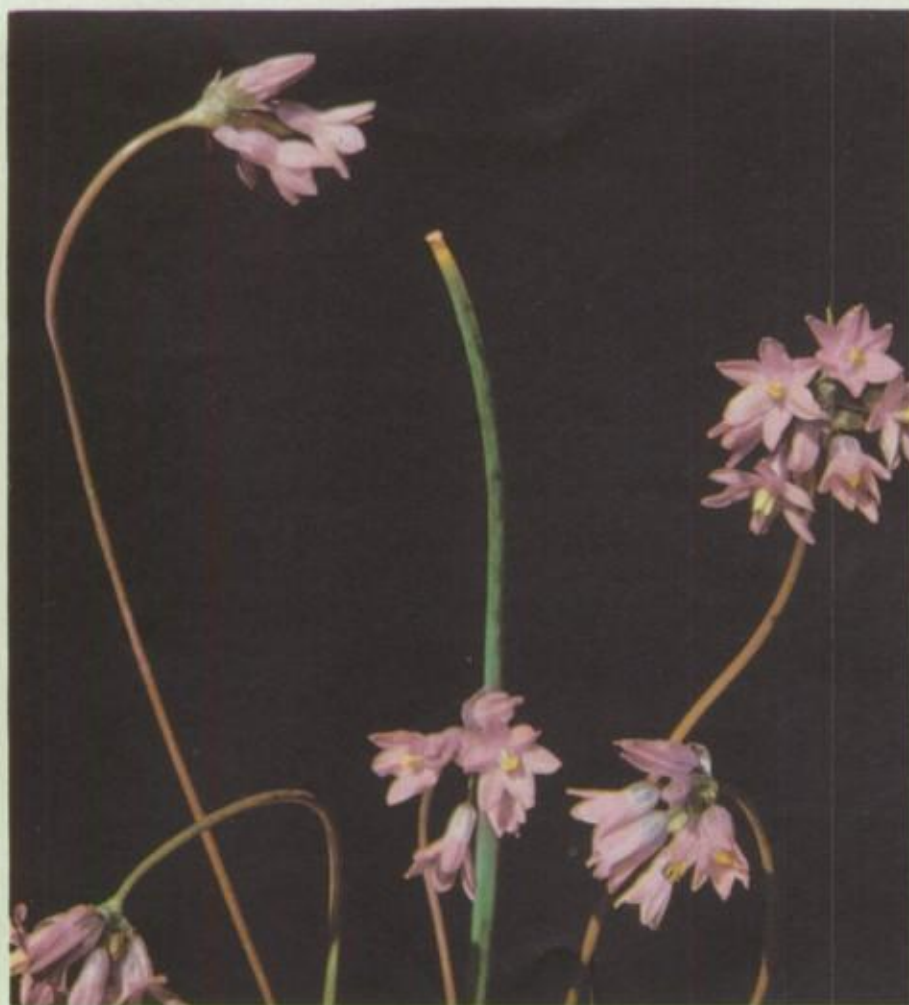

Salidago sparsiflora
Sunflower Family

It has been said that Goldenrod grows in every State in the Union and there are many species in Arizona. This one was photographed along U. S. 66 between Flagstaff and Williams and has the nicest shaped inflorescence of any.

callis undulata

It chooses the most in which to grow seen. It is compar- 2,000 ft. elevation.

COVENA—BLUEDICKS Brodiaea capitata
Lily Family

The Arizona name for this variety is "Covena" as it is more violet in color than blue. There are other similar plants which have nut-like bulbs and resemble grass. Abundant from February through May.

VENUS BLAZING STAR Mentzelia nitens
Loasa Family

This plant is found usually at elevations up to 3,000 ft. and blooms from February to May. Sometimes called "Stickleaf" because fragments of stems and flowers stick readily to clothing and to animals.

SWEET-SCENTED ACACIA

Acacia constricta
Pea Family

This handsome desert shrub takes its name from the fragrance of its blossoms. It blooms during the months of May, June and July, and ranges from 2,000 to 5,000 feet. Pods, not foliage, eaten by livestock.

CATCLAW

Acacia greggii
Pea Family

The plant is found in the bottom of the Grand Canyon and up to elevations of 4,500 ft. Bees relish flowers. Small tree reaches height of 20 ft. or more.

WILD MARIGOLD

Baileya
Sunflower Family

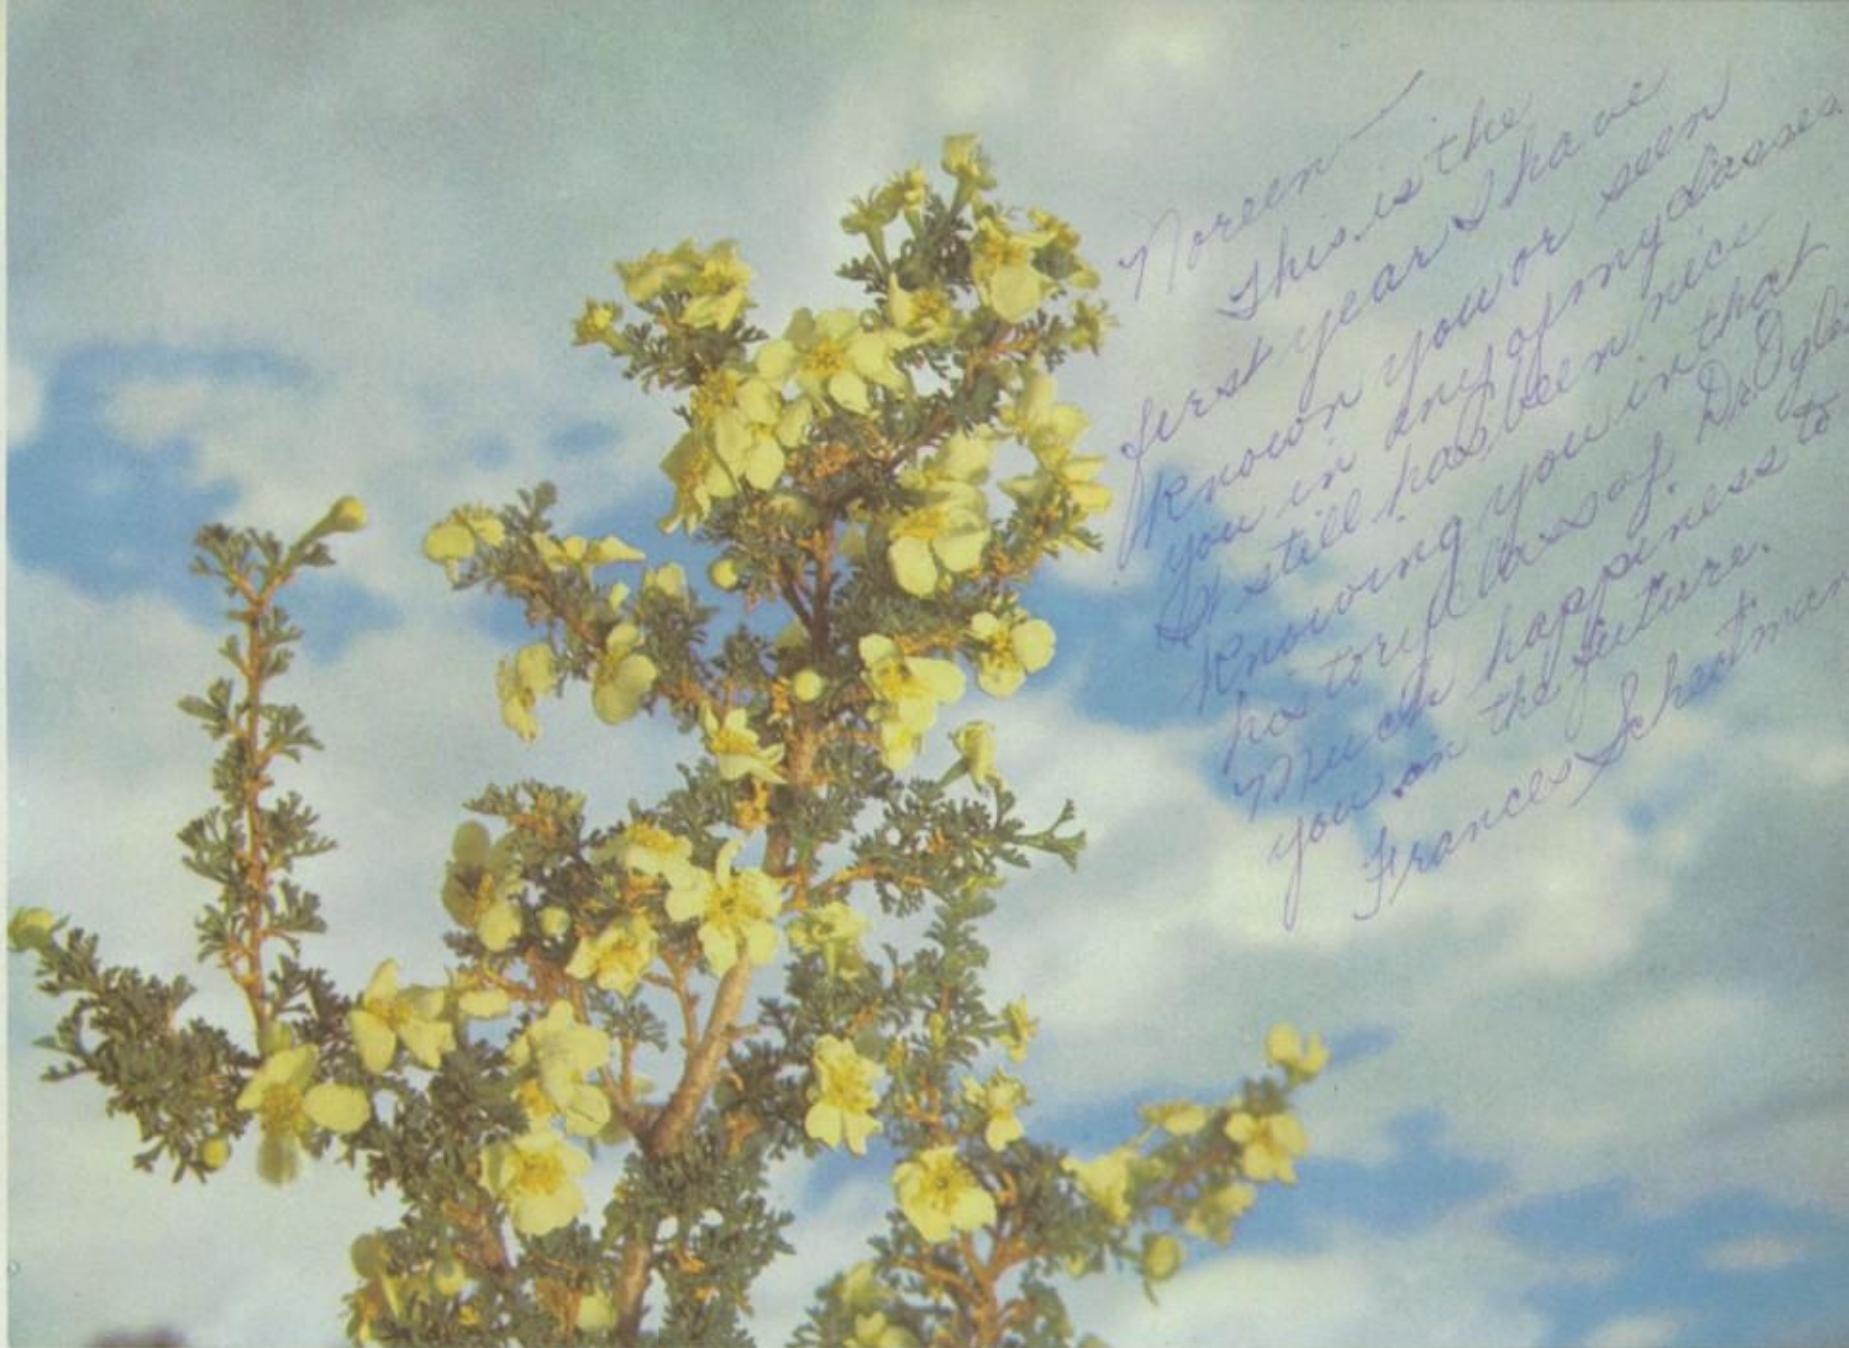

This plant is also called the "Desert Marigold," grows from 200 to 5,000 ft. Large flower heads are showy. Cattle poisoning from eating is reported.

OUR LORD'S CANDLE or SPANISH BAYONET

Yucca elata
Lily Family

There are many species of Yucca, and in each locality where a plant throws up a stalk of waxen white flowers, that variety is locally called "Our Lord's Candle." Plants pollinated by small moths.

CLIFF ROSE—QUININE BUSH

Cowania stansburiana

Rose Family

No other shrub is as beautiful as the Cliff Rose in full bloom. It grows from 3,500 to 8,000 feet, and is very common on dry slopes and mesas. It is sometimes called the quinine bush and is an important winter browse plant for cattle, sheep and deer. Plant is used by Hopi Indians for medical purposes.

MOUNTAIN DANDELION

Agoseris arizonica

Sunflower Family

A tall slender dandelion found among the sagebrush and in the open pine forest between Williams and Grand Canyon. It blooms from April to August.

SCARLET GILIA—SKYROCKET—REDSTAR

Gilia arizonica

Phlox Family

Especially beautiful along the South Rim of Grand Canyon where this picture was taken. They range from 5,000 to 7,500 ft. elevation among the pines and junipers and are very striking against a blue sky. They grow in small patches 10 to 14 inches in height.

DESERT SENNA—COUES' CASSIA

Cassia covesii

Pea Family

This plant is usually found between 1,000 and 3,000 ft. The cathartic drug senna is obtained from certain Old World species of the family of the Cassia.

SCARLET BUGLER
Pentstemon eatoni
Figwort Family

Found in northern Arizona southward to Gila and northern Pinal Counties, 2,000 to 7,000 ft., common on mesas, in fields and is often found along roadsides.

LOCOWEED
Oxytropis lambertii

Found from 5,000 to 7,500 ft. in open sandy land and pine forests, June to September. This plant is one of the most dangerous of the locoweeds to cattle.

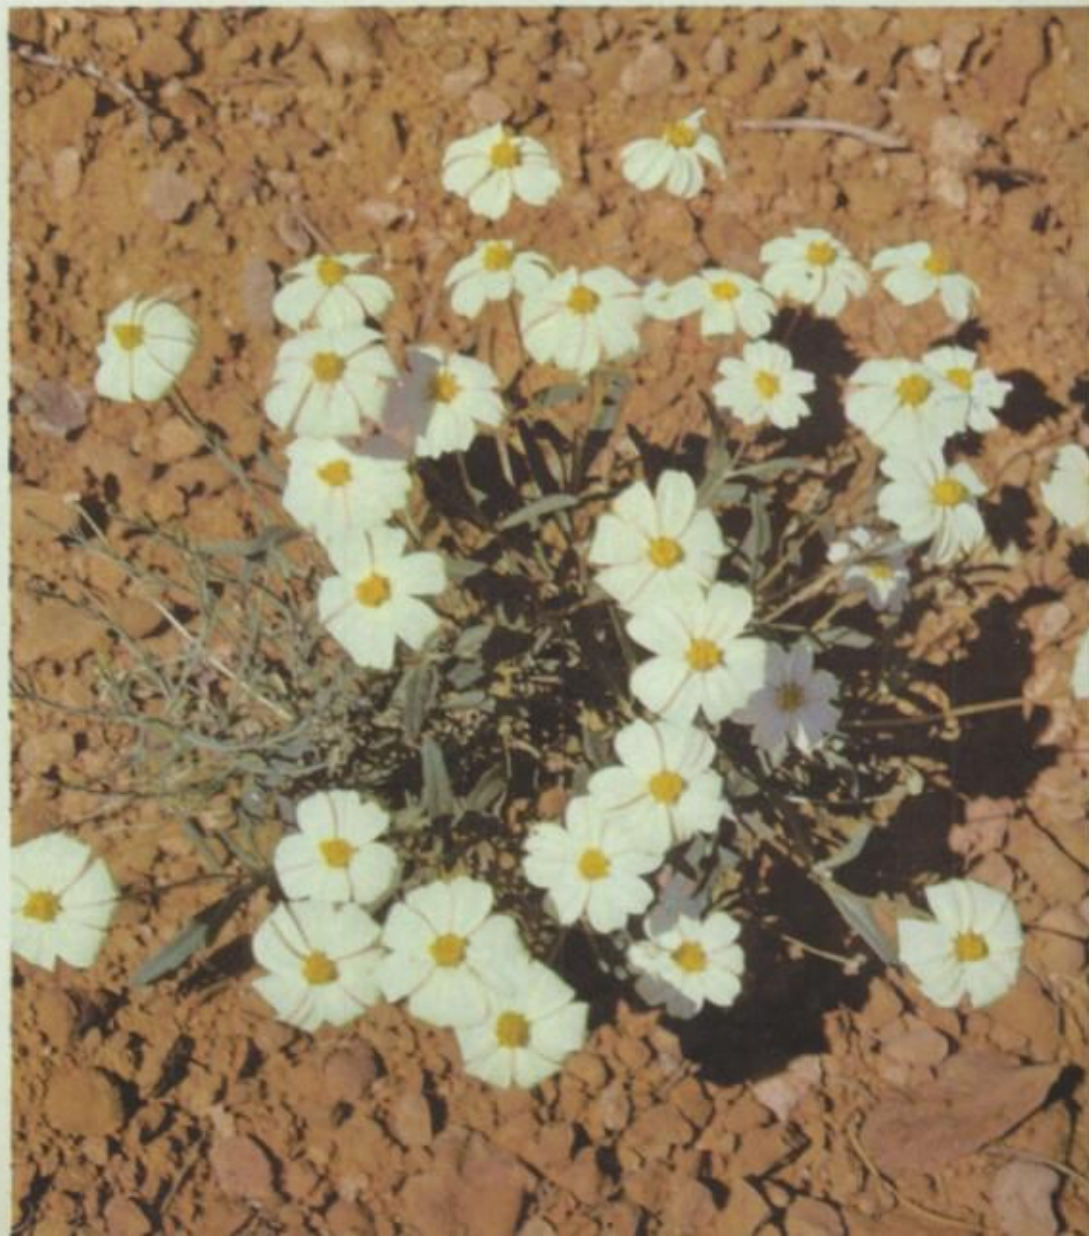

FRAGRANT BITTERWEED
Actinea odorata
Sunflower Family

This is a close-up of the A. odorata. This plant is found in moist, alluvial soil, and generally blooms in Spring. Has a graceful flower.

CLUSTER DAISY
Melampodium leucanthum
Sunflower Family

This plant was found on hillside in Oak Creek Canyon. It grows in attractive clusters. Generally found from 2,000 to 5,000 ft. elevation.

FRAGRANT BITTERWEED

Actinea odorata
Sunflower Family

This fragrant-bitterweed is toxic to livestock, especially to sheep, but is eaten only when other forage is scarce. Abundant along lower Gila River, March through May.

APACHE PLUME

Fallugia paradoxa
Rose Family

One of the Rosaceae in Arizona is the Apache Plume. Many of this species are important browse for animals. Hopis use infusion of leaves for caring of the hair.

INDIAN PAINT BRUSH

Castilleja integra
Figwort Family

Blooms from March until September, from 3,000 to 7,500 feet, mostly among oaks and pines. One of most attractive wild flowers.

IRIS-FLAG

Iris missouriensis

This graceful plant is found in wet meadows, May to September, from 6,000 to 9,000 ft. Photo made on top of Mingus Mountain.

LOTUS
Robinia neomexicana

This shrub grows from eight to fifteen feet high, and is found in canyons protected from wind. One of rarer lotus in the state.

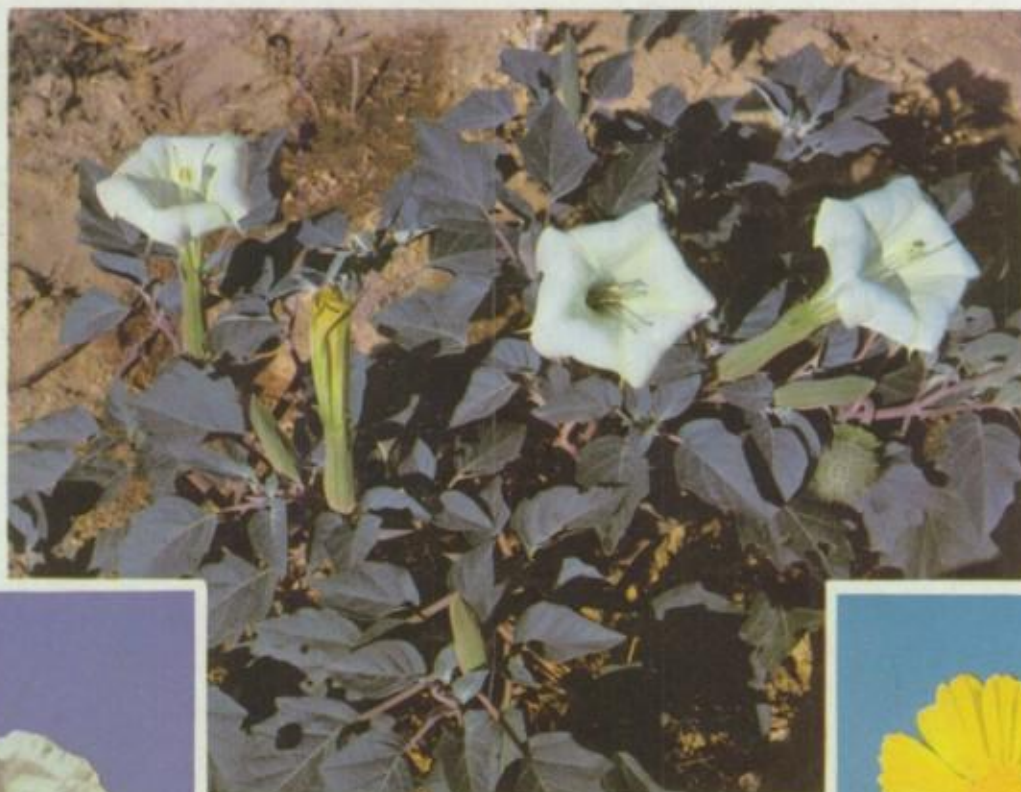

IRONWOOD
Olneya tesota

A desert tree with very handsome flowers, the Ironwood grows as high as 30 ft. Seeds are important food for animals on the desert.

(Below)
PRICKLY POPPY
Argemone platyceras
Poppy Family

This showy white poppy with yellow stamens and red stigma is known as Argemone. Its thin, delicately crumpled white petals are guarded by peculiar looking three-horned buds and thistle-like leaves. The stems and leaves of the whole plant are armored with fierce thorn-like prickles which give it the name of prickly poppy. It is a true member of the poppy family, but is often mistaken for the thistle.

(Below)
DESERT SUNFLOWER
Geraea canescens
Sunflower Family

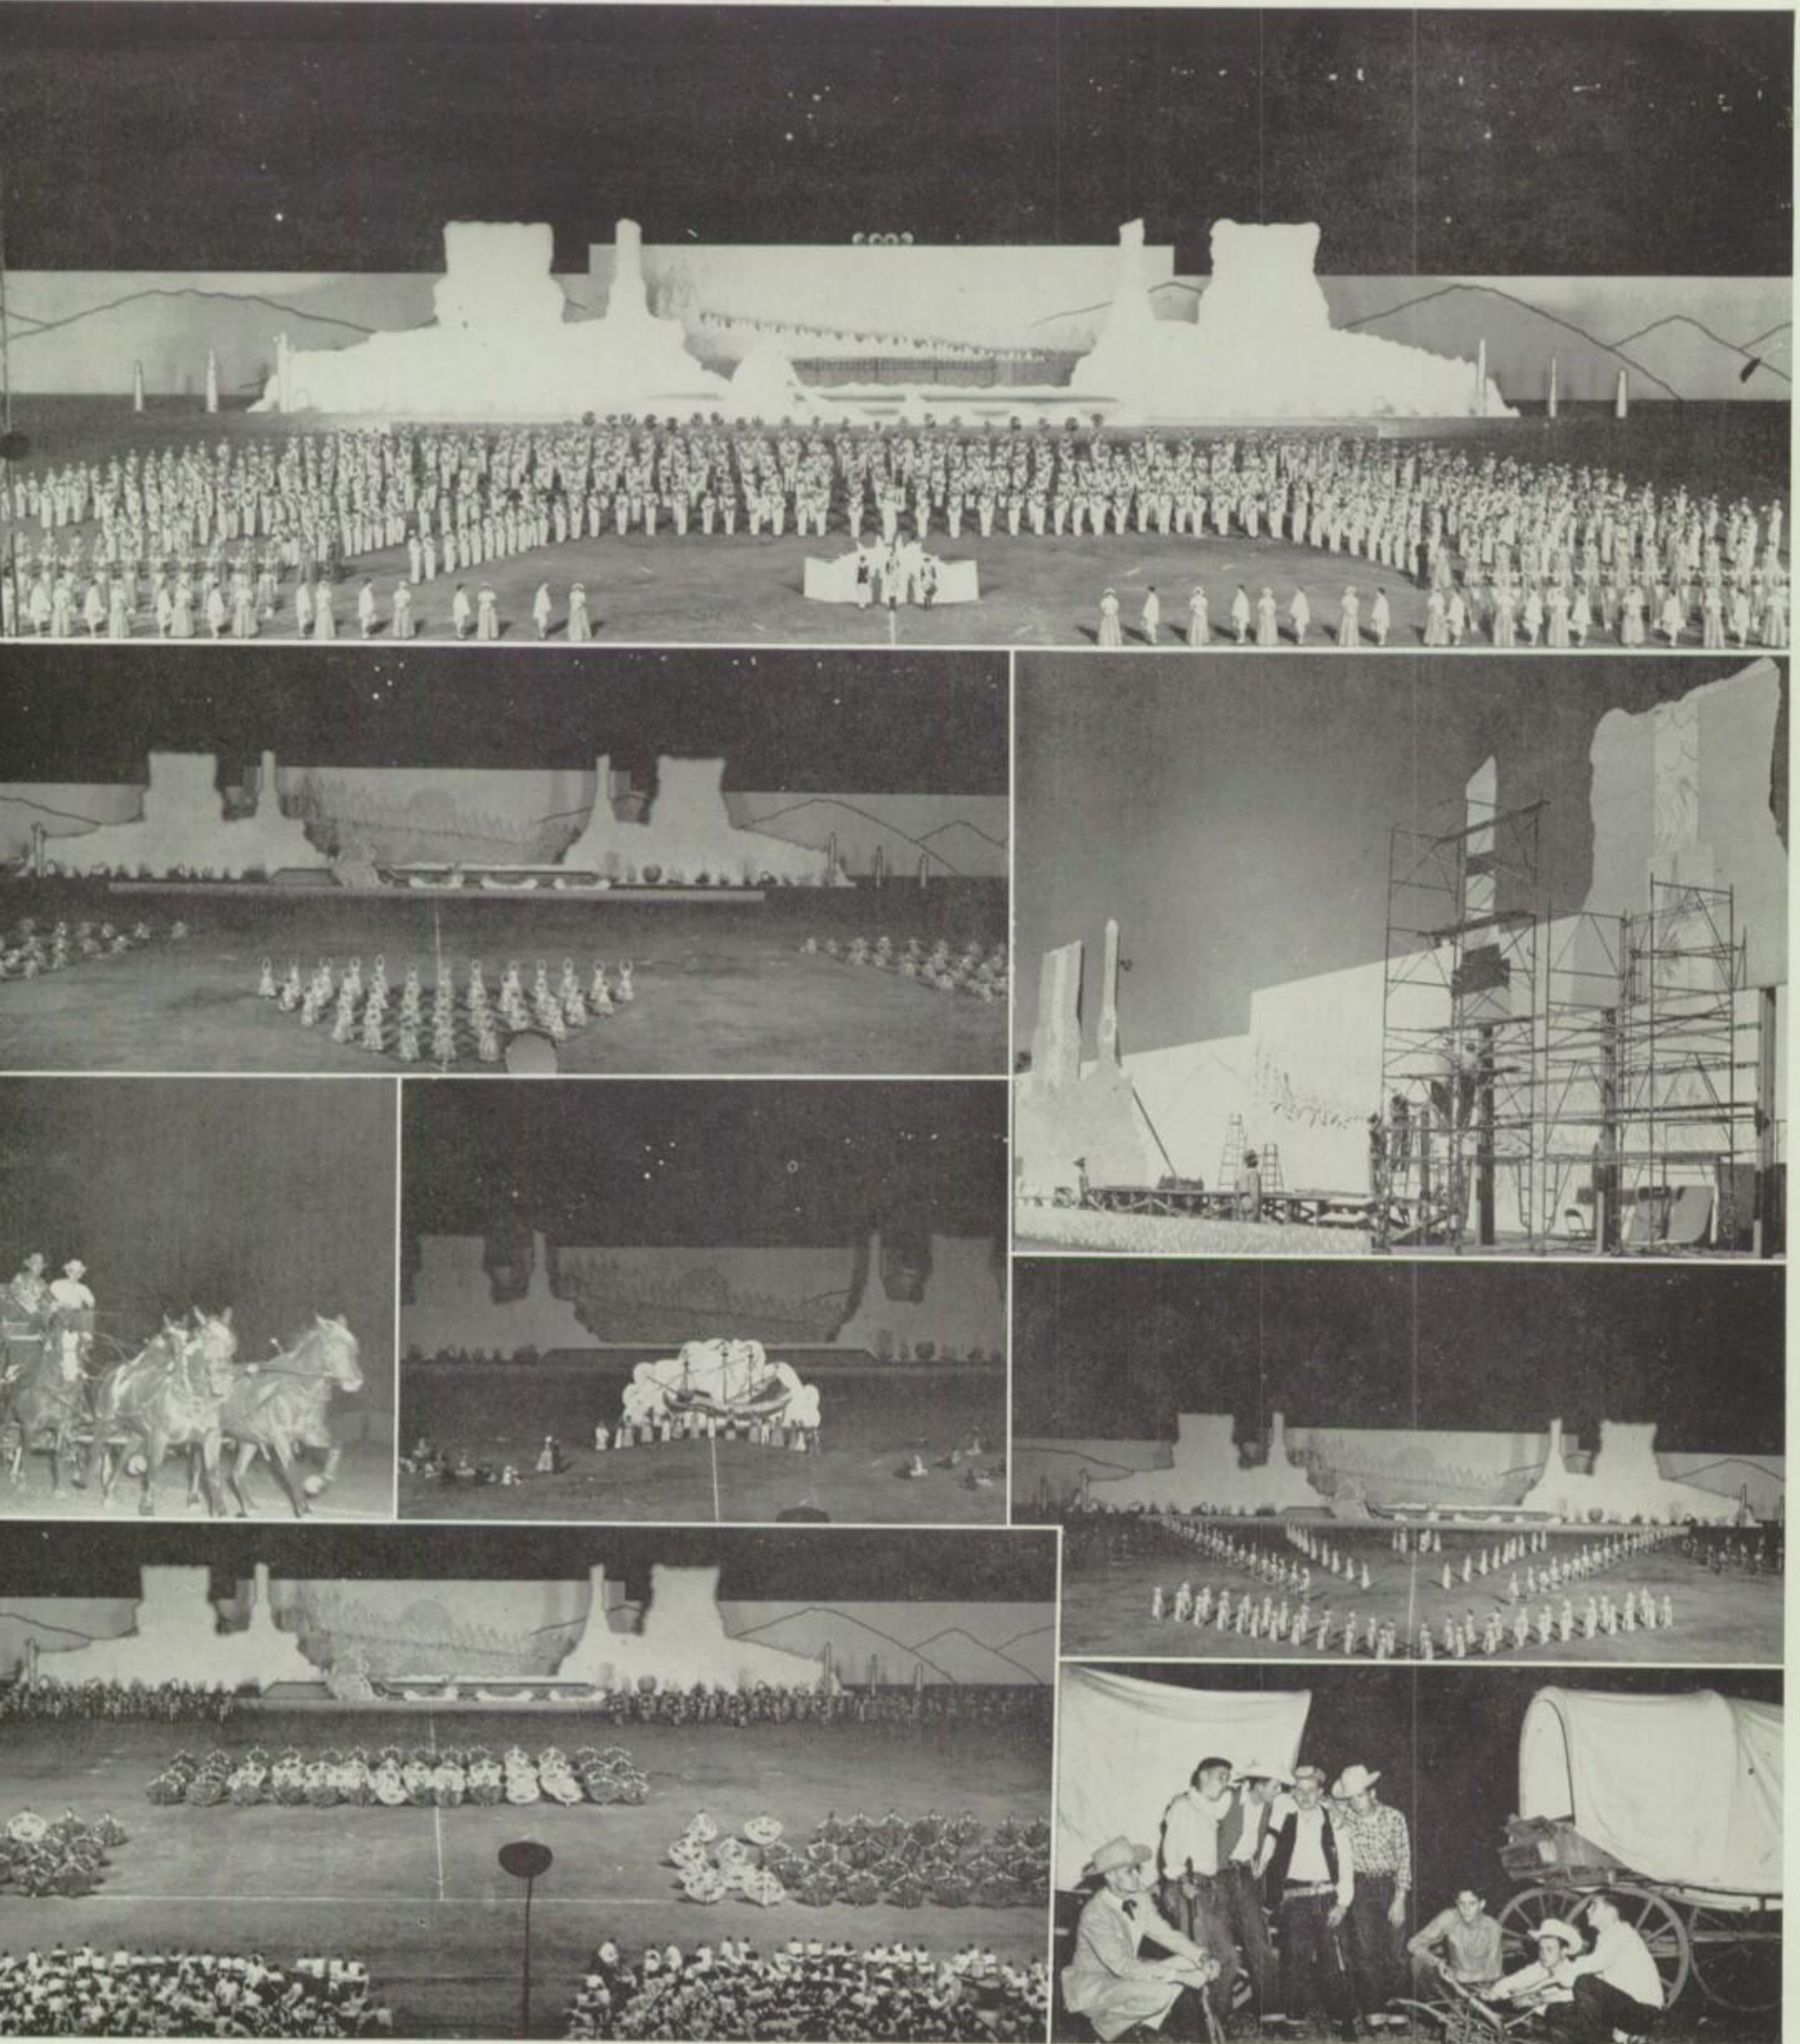

Found in Mohave, Maricopa, Pinal, western Pima, and Yuma Counties 1,500 ft. or lower, common in sandy soil, January to June. The large yellow heads are attractive and showy. Common in the Southwest. Given the slightest bit of moisture these plants become very beautiful, thrive in summer.

THORNAPPLE—JIMSONWEED
Datura meteloides
Potato Family
(Above)

A coarse, weedlike herb, ill-scented herbage. Roots and other parts of this plant are narcotic, sometimes eaten by Indians to produce visions of bright, gay colors.

Sun Worshippers Take Spotlight

OVER 3000 STUDENTS participated in the 20th Annual Masque of the Yellow Moon in Montgomery Stadium. Titled, "In The Sun Country," the pageant portrayed the importance of Old Sol in the growth of Arizona. Climax of the extravaganza is portrayed in the top panel, when six school bands combined in patriotic numbers. Indian dances, cowboys, even scenes from a light opera brought thunderous applause from 15,000 patrons.

Tip-Toppers For 1951 . . .

IT'S REALLY SOMETHING to be considered outstanding in a group of Phoenix Union High School seniors as active and alert as are the 582 graduating members from the Class of '51. The upper 15 per cent, or 87 of the graduates, were selected for National Honor Society membership on the basis of their four-year record in activities both extra-curricular and scholastic. There were a number of '51ers who had brilliant records as juniors and seniors, but these were nudged out of Honor Society membership by classmates with perhaps less prominent recognition more recently, but with a higher total record of achievement in all their years here.

Class of '51 Spokesmen

TOPS IN THE Class of '51, were outstanding seniors: Barbara Greer, valedictorian; Bill Lindemulder, salutatorian; Joe Contreras, salutatorian; and Mary Louise Brion, valedictorian.

Now, After Four Happy Years . . .

Kempson, Kirk, and Ramsey, adding the flowers to the picket fence surrounding the orchestra. Lower Left, the Senior Tea sponsored by SOS was a success as Bragg, Rose, Nulf, Givens, Carver, Roberts, Armstrong, and Torrejos gather for seconds. Mr. Harvey Zorn (Lower Right) and his Ercoupe will take ya' any place you wanta go!

here's mo again

LET'S TRADE dances! Hart, Blakesley, Cox, and Mattingly make a cozy group at the Mardi Gras. Right: Kempson displays a rare technique for tying shoelaces for Armstrong at the Hi-Y picnic. Watching the fun are Beaubien, Lonsdale, Redwood, and Jacobs.

Noreen:
 We have had so much fun
 this year. Decorating for dances etc - I am so glad you are a big wheel on the annual next year. I know you will do a good job - as you have done in everything else. I hope we can have as much fun next year. Best of Luck to a really nice gal who has a lot on the ball - Thanks for everything this year,

Dear Noreen,

I'm very pleased to have you a girl-friend.
I remember when we met in our Freshman year. We were in the same Quintation
Class together. Also Glee Club which led to Oratorio.
I hope to see you all next year.
